ON WILSONOutbreak in the House Indicates
They Are Restless.REPUBLICANS ARE ACTIVE
Wood's Lead Does Not Dishearten His Rivals.(Special to The News from The Washington Star)

WASHINGTON.—From the standpoint of democratic presidential news the week just ended has been notable chiefly for the continued lack of the efforts in behalf of any aspirants for the San Francisco nomination. Supporters of Attorney General Palmer continue to work in a number of states, but they are not creating much of a stir.

Democratic lethargy is attributed solely to the lack of knowledge as to what President Wilson intends to do about standing as a candidate for a third term, or, in the event that he does not himself intend to be a candidate, what his preferences are.

Under this handicap democrats are inactive, but it cannot be said they are restive. That many of them are, in fact, restless, was evidenced by the outbreak in the House of Representatives during the week, when Representative Humphreys of Mississippi, in a prepared address, called upon Mr. Wilson to make public declaration whether he would or would not be a candidate for re-election. At this writing there has been no response from the White House, and there is no lively expectation that there will be one soon.

With the treaty fight removed from the Senate and injected into the campaign, democrats had looked forward to the unimbering of heavy artillery in behalf of presidential candidates. But dispatches to The Star from its political correspondents do not echo any such cannonading. About the most they have to report is that the party managers are bending their efforts toward having unopposed delegations sent to San Francisco, and as the party managers in most instances are thick-and-thin Wilson men, success to their efforts will mean that the convention will be ready to do the President's bidding, whether the nomination is to go to Mr. Wilson himself or to a man of the President's selection.

William Jennings Bryan continues to go up and down the country, bending his efforts chiefly to preventing the selection of any "war" delegates to the national convention, but incidentally opposing the President's stand on the peace treaty and the league of nations covenant. It is hard to judge by reports from the states he has visited whether Mr. Bryan is making any substantial headway, but it seems fair to assume that he is not creating any more than the usual sensation, else the correspondents would pay more attention to his doings.

About the only place where there is much of a democratic commotion is in Texas, where former Senator Bailey and his followers are trying to get control of the party machinery, and make little attempt to disguise that they are engaged in a straight out fight against the national administration. Because of the size of the delegation Texas will have at San Francisco, this contest is of vital interest to democrats everywhere, but apparently it has not yet developed to a point where political prophets are willing to risk their reputations on the outcome.

In Maryland something of a democratic flurry has been created by the avowed purpose of supporters of Attorney General Palmer to enter him at the primaries in an effort to get instructions. The Maryland democratic managers are bent on an unopposed delegation, and for the purpose of heading off Palmer the possibility of entering Gov. Albert C. Ritchie as a presidential candidate is being considered. Gov. Ritchie is not accused of having presidential aspirations, but it is feared if the issue is left to a question of instructing for Palmer or sending an unopposed delegation, the Palmer supporters will go to the polls and those opposing instructions will stay at home on primary days.

There is no lack of heat and "pep" in the republican presidential contest. Gen. Wood's victory in South Dakota has greatly encouraged followers of the soldier candidate but the backers of his rivals deny that they are down-hearted. All eyes now are turned to Michigan where the primary is to be held April 5. On the surface of things, the political experts seem to give Gen. Wood the worst of the deal with respect to the Michigan primary. They contend that he must "there or be out of the running, but a Wood victory in Michigan would not put any other candidate out. It is somewhat difficult to understand by what process of reasoning this conclusion is arrived at, but the experts say it is the "psychology" of the situation.

What the man in the street will be more inclined to accept as a decisive test will be the primaries in Indiana, to be held May 4. Indiana is "open territory" and active campaigns are being made there in behalf of all four of the leading republican candidates—Wood, Lowden, Johnson and Harding. The Indiana

GERMAN 'RED' ARMY MAKES GAIN IN RHINE DISTRICTSEntente Refuse Government Permission to Strengthen Forces.

TREATY MUST REMAIN FIRM

Forbids Armed Troops in Provinces Near Border.

PARIS.—The communist red army in the Rhine provinces made additional advances while the allies refused permission to the Berlin authorities to send 75,000 men into the troubled district to restore order.

Entente powers at first offered to grant Germany permission to send as many troops into the troubled area as necessary to restore order. They made a condition, however, that the Berlin government agree to allied occupation of Darmstadt and Frankfurt as a guarantee that the German troops would be withdrawn as soon as the reds were overcome.

Germany refused this condition and the allies decided that the treaty of Versailles must remain in force. The treaty forbids armed forces in the Rhine provinces.

While the allied action at first glance, appeared an over-zealous interpretation of the treaty, French officials declared that Germany already has flouted the Versailles pact time after time and that a halt must be called. They considered the German demand was perfectly reasonable and said that if Germany was unwilling to grant the allies were justified in holding that the treaty must be obeyed to the letter.

Other allied reprisals, however, if carried out, might prove a boomerang. Some say it is as much to the entente's interest as to Germany's to see that the Ruhr revolt is crushed, because it is from this wealth-producing district that Germany must obtain materials and money with which to pay much of the huge indemnity exacted by the treaty.

Coal deliveries, provided for France, they said, must all come from the Ruhr valley, now held by the reds, who have threatened to render the mines unworkable unless the Berlin government acceded to their demands.

These observers believed the allied decision may be subject to revision or that Germany eventually will be forced to yield the guarantee. A party of German military officers has been here several days conferring with allied leaders over the Ruhr outbreak. The status of the Ebert government, Saturday night was not clear. One dispatch said that Hermann Mueller, former foreign minister, charged with formation of a new cabinet by the imperial president Friday, has given up the attempt, while another reported he had succeeded in getting several leaders to accept portfolios. The main red army in Westphalia continued to advance, its siege of Wesel held by reichswehr troops reinforced by detachments from the regular army.

No other fighting was reported in the Rhine provinces. But food conditions were said to be acute, with supplies exhausted in several cities.

LEGION READY TO START DRIVEFourteen Teams Place Goal at 1000 New Members.

The American Legion is ready to start a campaign Monday at 9 o'clock to boost the membership of the local Paul Gallagher Post, 92, to 1,200. The drive is to last three days.

This was the statement of Colonel E. D. Sinks, commander of the Gallagher Post, Saturday night.

Fourteen teams to cover the city which has been divided into four sections, are being held in readiness Saturday night for Monday morning. Three men will comprise each team. A luncheon of all teams is to be held at the Elks' club at 5:30.

Manufacturing plants are to be the first visited. In the three days the campaign is to be carried to all parts of the city.

No effort is being made to reach the ex-service men of Allen county, in the last of the month drive according to Colonel Sinks. It is not the intention to discriminate against the Allen county war vets, who will be sought to join up at a later date.

The local commander explained this by stating the Lima field was large enough to engage the efforts of the teams for three days, and the county would come in for its share at some future time. In the meantime voluntary applications will be accepted from any of the ex-service men from the rural districts.

The Legion recently inherited close to $3,000 from the surplus fund of the Allen county War Chest. It will be paid into the Legion treasury, it is believed, when the drive ends. The sum will be used as a nucleus of a permanent home fund.

"RED" ARMIES START DRIVE

Capture Important Railway Center and Sea Ports.

LONDON.—That the Polish government had moved from Warsaw to Domberg, Polish Posen, caused considerable uneasiness in official circles here Saturday night.

The Russians claimed capture of Vilna, an important railway center northeast of Warsaw and said their armies were advancing along the entire front of more than 200 miles.

In some quarters here, it was believed the soviet offensive may stop when the Poles have been expelled from what the Russians consider their rightful territory. Poles have occupied a considerable part of Russia in excess of their boundary lines as fixed by the peace conference.

The red armies also claimed capture of Novorossisk, the important Black Sea port.

Earlier dispatches had reported the soviet armies in control of Makhop and Natukhsakaya, the latter city only 13 miles from Novorossisk. These dispatches said General Deniken, leader of the south Russian Bolshevik armies had prepared to make his last stand at Novorossisk.

While the Moscow communique made no mention of the capture of Deniken when Novorossisk fell, the British war office was inclined to believe that its capture marked the end of active resistance by the Deniken forces.

Far that Deniken may meet the same fate that Admiral Kolchak did, was expressed in some quarters. Kolchak was killed after his Siberian anti-Bolshevik army had been routed.

The soviets claimed capture of 10,000 men of the Don Cossack second division in the operation resulting in the capture of Novorossisk. They also took a large number of horses and valuable military supplies and guns, their communique said.

COLUMBUS.—Chief Rain-In-Mc-Face, 65, an Indian of Wichita, Okla., and Richard Butler, 13, were arrested at Union station here Saturday.

The chief is being held at the county jail until after juvenile authorities investigate conditions surrounding his custody of the boy, who is being held at the detention home.

The chief says he has been traveling thru the country lecturing on "Indian life" for the benefit of Indian missionary work. He says the boy is his helper and was traveling with him at the boy's parents consent, who live at Silver Springs, Ohio.

Lima Doctor Puts
Taboo On Kisses

The soft impress of lip on lip is dangerous at any time of the day or night. Osculation by sunlight and moonlight is just as dangerous as the nocturnal salutation.

This is the answer of Dr. C. A. Files, superintendent of the Lima district tuberculosis hospital, to Dr. Lawrence Brown, Saranac Lake, N. Y., was "as reported as stating that morning kissing was dangerous because the sun hasn't had a chance to knock out the overnight accumulation of germs."

"The time of kissing makes little difference," Dr. Files said. "Active germs may be found on the lips of apparently healthy persons at any time. There is no reason to believe that afternoon or evening kissing is less dangerous than morning kissing. It feels like they can't help kissing each other it is best to sterilize the lips before such action."

SUSPECTS ARE RELEASED

Adena Business Suspended Saturday for Funeral.

ADENA.—A handkerchief bearing the initial "N" and a red hat cord were the only clues in the hands of police Saturday night to identify the slayer of Frances South, 11. The child was kicked to death in a woods about a mile from her home here Thursday.

Three or seven suspects picked up shortly after the discovery of the body were released. The others were taken to the jail at Steubenville for further examination.

Police and posses of citizens were busy Saturday night, running down stories of suspects filtering in from all parts of this and surrounding counties. A railroad man reported having seen a man wearing a green cap near the scene of the crime. A woman living in Adena also said she saw a man with a green cap and her description tallied with that given by the railroad worker.

The child's hands had been tied with a handkerchief, another handkerchief was used as a gag and the red hat cord was tied around her neck. Coroner H. T. Kirk, of Steubenville, held a post mortem and said heel marks on the forehead, plainly indicated the child had been kicked to death.

The country for more than a score of miles around is being carefully searched for traces of the slayer. It was believed in some quarters that two persons participated in the crime.

In the meantime, the child's mother, ill in bed at the time of the killing, is prostrated with grief and it was feared the shock may prove fatal. The child's father, a miner, is heading one posse and hasn't slept since he and neighbors discovered the mutilated little body.

Practically every officer in Ohio has been enlisted in the man-hunt and officers Saturday night expressed confidence in the ultimate capture of the slayer or slayers.

Funeral services for the victim were held Saturday afternoon. Rev. A. N. Ashburn, who led one posse, took enough time off to conduct the services. Business was suspended all over town. Hundreds of men and women from surrounding towns flocked to Adena and jammed the little Methodist church and overflowed into the street.

The entire ceremony consumed a scant hour. When the coffin was carried from the church, two lines of automobiles formed. One line followed the body to the grave and the other again took up the hunt.

Mayor Burkhardt Sees No Reason for City Taking Action.

COX PUTS IT UP TO PUBLIC

Special Session of Legislature
May Be Called Soon.

Lima probably will not join larger cities of the state in a petition for a special session of the legislature to take up the matter of rent profiteering last night that there have been no concerted complaints here and that he does not consider that the situation is acute.

Members of the city council were of the same opinion and it is not likely that the matter will be taken up, it is said. Cleveland is back of the movement to get a special session and Governor Cox has agreed to let the matter rest with the public, stating that if the sentiment is for such action, it will be held.

Mayor Burkhardt said that while there has been some raising of rents here, he does not believe there are many cases in which the charges are out of proportion to the general advance of values. He said that buildings now being constructed must have higher rentals because of the high price of building materials, but that in no case had it come to his attention that exorbitant rents are being charged.

Another reason mentioned by the mayor for the absence of the difficulties other cities are having in this respect is the fact that a greater percentage of resident of this city own their own homes than in any other city of about the same size in the state.

Burkhardt is of the opinion that smaller cities such as Lima are not affected by the profiteering larger cities are complaining of.

COLUMBUS.—In answer to inquiries as to whether he would call a special session of the legislature to enact laws to curb rent profiteering, Governor Cox Saturday issued the following statement:

"Public sentiment and the legal powers of the state will determine whether or not a special session of the legislature will be necessary to deal with rent profiteering."

"If it is definitely ascertained that the legislature can deal with the situation, public sentiment will undoubtedly demand a solution. The situation is undoubtedly a serious one, and affects the very core of our community life."

Cox declared it was his opinion that home rule cities under their charters, already possessed the power to deal with the situation as effectively as the state could. He said he realized the "import of the situation" and believed it his duty to go into the matter armed with every weapon possible to combat profiteering.

COLUMBUS.—In commenting on Governor Cox's statement Saturday regarding a special session of the legislature to curb rent profiteering, Beecher Waltermire of the public utilities commission, pointed out that since the adjournment of the general assembly rents have jumped skyward in Ohio.

Waltermire, at the last session of the legislature, drew up an anti-rent profiteering bill, but it was sidetracked.

"Anti-profiteering bills before the legislature acted as a club over the heads of landlords," Waltermire declared, "but since the session adjourned without dealing with the situation, the problem has become more serious."

BOY WHOM FATHER
SHOT MAY DIEFrank Piano, Jr., Near Death
Wants to Save Dad.

CHICAGO.—Death may yet cheat Frank Piano, Jr., "bad boy" and "gangster," whose father fired three bullets into his body to "chase the devil" out of his soul, of a chance to start all over again.

Lying in a cot at the County hospital Saturday night, Frank was between life and death. The seventeen-year-old reformed youth had a relapse Saturday and to prevent suffering, nurses gave him hypodermics.

Weakened from the loss of blood, young Frank was struggling hard to live to save his father from facing a charge of murder.

"Oh, I am so tired," he whispered to the nurse Saturday, "but I can't quit now. I have to live to save Dad and show him that I can be good."

Frank is repentant and says if he ever gets out, he will cut the "gang" for good. The father shot the son after repeated efforts to have him reform.

DEADLY VENDETTA
BREAKS OUTSinn Fein Terrorists Take Stand Against Military Sympathizers.

ARMED BAND KILL LEADERS

Government Fears Retaliation By Irish Nationalists Radicals.

DUBLIN.—Ireland Saturday night was believed to be the scene of a deadly vendetta. Sinn Fein leaders said a reign of terror had been declared by terrorists of their own ranks on one hand and sympathizers of the government, police and military authorities, on the other.

The murder of James McCarthy, Sinn Fein leader at Thurles was seen as the latest expression of the vendetta. McCarthy was shot and killed at 1:30 a. m. Saturday, by a band of armed men who broke into his bedroom. Sinn Feiners said he was murdered in cold blood, without opportunity to defend himself. Unusual precautions had been taken to protect the lives of all government officials. The government feared early efforts at retaliation by the Irish nationalist radicals who have asserted openly that the deaths of Sinn Fein members will not go unavenged.

The inside history of events leading up to the start of the vendetta was given here Saturday night. Last December, it was said, a small body of extreme nationalists, comprising many of the hot-headed younger Irish leaders, banded together to form an organization to assassinate or otherwise terrorize all British officials and police. The members took a solemn vow to drive the British out of Ireland, according to the story. They signed a pledge agreeing to lay down their lives for the cause if necessary.

The society's first move, it was said, was the attempt on the life of Viscount French, Irish lieutenant of Ireland and next was the murder of Police Commissioner Redmond. Two attempts on the life of King's Counsel Sullivan, followed these attacks. Then came the assassination of the British secret agent Quinn, who was tried by the radicals' court and condemned to death. He was taken to a meadow near Cork, and killed. Wednesday an unknown man was shot and killed in the streets of Dublin. His body still lay in the morgue Saturday night, as unidentified, but it was common gossip that the man was a British agent put to death by radicals.

This murder came after a dozen crimes of lesser importance. Friday the nation was shocked by the killing of Alan Bell, magistrate of Dublin. Castle, who was dragged from a Dublin street car at 10 o'clock in the morning and shot by four masked men who escaped.

The rapid retaliation of the anti-Sinn Fein group was seen in the killing of McCarthy Saturday.

Some sources here charged that the anti-Sinn Fein group was sponsored by the police and that it numbered many co-stables among its members. All Ireland has heard the charge that the lord mayor of Cork was killed by the police.

Anonymous letters received by the chairman of the town council at Queenstown was warned that the policemen killed in Queenstown would result in the chairman's death and other threatening letters received by Sinn Feiners, were attributed to the Anti-Sinn Fein terrorists organization.

As to the McCurtain murders, events here pointed to the evidence brought out in the coroner's investigation. McCurtain's family fairly charged that the crime was carried out by the police. They produced the button from a policeman's uniform found outside the house the morning after McCurtain's assassination. McCurtain's wife, who opened the door for the criminals, declared they were all men of military bearing and carried rifles like the guns used by the military in Cork.

Fifth witnesses said a group of men whose description tallied with that of the murderers, was seen to enter the police barracks soon after the murder.

Sinn Fein leaders threaten Ireland were in hiding Saturday night.

The rapid revenge of the Bell murder, they feared, might be only a prelude to other crimes.

"No man can tell when his hour will come," one Sinn Feiner declared. "Meantime the result of the terrorists plot of murder and counter-murder has served only to fan the flames of Irish hatred of all things British."

The reports of Andrew Bonar Law's speech in the House of Commons was widely discussed.

WOLVERINE STATE NEAR PRIMARY

Michigan Agog With Developments on Eve of Balloting.

DETROIT, Mich.—The favorites in the Michigan preferential primaries' sweepstakes were rounding into the home stretch Saturday night.

On the eve of the last week of the primary campaign, Major General Leonard Wood and Senator Miles Poindexter continued speaking tours thruout the state.

General Wood was to return to Chicago late Saturday night, following speeches in four Michigan cities Saturday. He will return to Michigan Monday for the wind-up of the campaign.

Governor Frank O. Lowden made a speaking tour of the state last week, winding it up with a big meeting in Detroit. He urged a budget system in government in his Detroit speech and centered his appeal thru the state on agricultural legislation.

General Wood, during his Michigan tour this week, has declared for universal military training, a department of agriculture, conducted by farmers, and a budget system.

Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, left the state Thursday completing a tour which had been interrupted by a call to Washington to vote on the peace treaty. He received enthusiastic receptions in many cities thruout the state and from former members of the 33rd Infantry who give him credit for "getting them out of Russia."

Johnson centered his attack on the treaty and league of nations.

Of the Democratic candidates in the April 5 primary, only Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer has appeared in the state. His visit was not hailed as a campaign move and he did not speak in any cities but Detroit.

DEMOCRATS WAIT ON WILSON

Lima primary law requires that a candidate shall receive a majority of the votes cast before the delegation is instructed for him, but it is claimed by the Wood management, and generally conceded, that a plurality vote for Wood would be a moral victory of very potent influence. The "old guard" in Indiana, by which is meant most of the active party workers, is opposed to Wood, and is bending every effort to prevent him getting a plurality, much less a majority, of the primary votes. Since the South Dakota primary they are counting heavily on Senator Hiram Johnson. The returns are said to show that in South Dakota the Californian ran strong with voters of German extraction, and there is a heavy German vote in Indiana.

In Ohio the contest between the Wood and Harding forces has reached a point of bitterness. The rival headquarters in Columbus are across the street from each other and from each emanates on the other. The Star's Columbus correspondent maintains that the Wood campaign is not likely to take many delegates away from Harding, as the party organization is standing loyally back of the Ohio senator.

A dispatch from Topeka says half the Kansas delegation to Chicago now has been chosen, and that there is not a single Wood man among them. Several are under instructions not to vote for Wood, while others were chosen by district conventions which declared against a military candidate. Only one of the candidates for delegate at large is a Wood man. The state convention is to be held next Wednesday, and it is not expected to instruct for any candidate or even to give an endorsement.

The Colorado republican sentiment for Hoover is counted on by the Wood management to cut into the Wood strength and the Lowdenites think they will be able to vote the entire delegation by adoption of a unit rule. In West Virginia the Wood management is conducting a very active campaign and building up a strong organization. The anti-Wood faction now is making the charge that Senator Sutherland is not really a candidate for the nomination, but is withholding announcement of his withdrawal in the interest of Gen. Wood. Gov. Lowden and Senator Harding had agreed they would not enter the West Virginia field against Sutherland.

Decides In Favor of Glando Pine

Judge French, of Alexandria, Ind., says: "After running through the whole category of cough remedies and so-called cough cures, the only one that I can really recommend is Glando Pine." He also says: "I had a chronic cough for years. I coughed some nights until I was worn out. I heard a great deal about Glando Pine, but I really had no faith in being cured because I had tried so many remedies and they had all failed. I was so anxious for relief that I decided to give Glando Pine a trial and I made no mistake, for it cured my cough. I am now as free from a cough as a new-born babe and can go to bed and sleep. I am so thankful for my cure that I am only anxious to tell others what I know to be true of this wonderful cough medicine. I cannot praise Glando Pine too highly."

Judge French's experience with Glando Pine is not unusual. People like it because of its soothing, healing and curative power. Only pure fresh drugs are used in its composition and it can be relied upon, it quickly relieves the distressing cough which annoys children at night. It is a safe, sane, honest and reliable remedy that can be prepared at home at a saving of $2.00 a pint. Glando Pine is highly concentrated and all you have to do is to mix it with enough corn syrup, sugar syrup or strained honey to make a pint and you have a remedy for coughs, colds, hoarseness, throat irritation, croup and bronchial trouble that cannot be beat. Ask your druggist. If he does not have it ask him to get it for you, or send 50 cents to The Gland-Aid Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., and it will be sent you.—Adv.

Chief Roush And Pipes On Outs

Police Chief Roush does not mind the pleasing aroma of a perfectly good "25 center" or the fragrance of the delicate cigaret but he absolutely will not tolerate his office being filled with smoke from the old corn-cobs and calabashes.

Roush has posted orders in his private office to the effect that "pipe-smoking will not be permitted" under any consideration.

The Chief says he will enforce this rule to the letter.

MEN AND MATTERS

P. O. Crawford, Main-st. shoe dealer, leaves Saturday for Chicago on a business trip. He will be gone for several days.

George R. Carter, of Carter and Carull, N. Main-st., is in New York on a ten days' purchasing trip.

"I like to hear the frogs chirping, even if their voices are yet a little hoarse," L. B. Good, member of the Monroe-twp. board of education said Saturday, while here attending the meeting of county members. "The last few days has brought hundreds of frogs to life in the country. Reminds me of the days when I was a boy and knew it was time to go a-fishing."

J. C. Thompson, of the Thompson garage, announced Saturday that his garage, W. Market-st., will remain open until 9 o'clock Monday evening so that shop men and those who are unable to get their automobile licenses during the day may be accommodated. This is the official distributing center for the license and tags.

Don John of B. S. Porter and Son, has returned from a business trip to Detroit and Cleveland.

OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Haines was celebrated at Midpoint last Wednesday. They were married fifty years ago in Dayton. Mrs. Louella Clay and Mr. and Mrs. Franz Clay, all of Lima, attended the celebration.

William M. Bateson, who for a number of years has been associated with the Solar Refinery, has taken over a government contract and is now located in Detroit, Mich.

THE CAFE NORVAL SERVES A SPECIAL SUNDAY TABLE D'HOUE DINNER FROM 12 TO 2 P. M. AND FROM 6 TO 8 O'CLOCK. TABLE RESERVATIONS MAY BE MADE BY PHONE.

WILL FILED

The estate of the late L. D. Tabler, Lafayette, amounted to $50 in personal property and $1,850 in real estate, according to a will filed in probate court Saturday. The widow, Mrs. Mary C. Tabler, is named executrix.

A Woman's Verdict

Tell of Suffering Greatly With Kidney and Bladder Trouble and How Balmwort Brought Relief.

Her Letter Well Worth Reading:

Mrs. Nellie McGinn, 609 East 13th street, New York City, writes: "For the last year I had suffered greatly from kidney and bladder trouble, distressing pain in the back and hips, with rheumatic twinges and frequent headaches, accompanied by nervousness, chills, and fever; also a frequent desire to urinate, a smarting, burning sensation, with pain in the region of the bladder. I would frequently have to arise at night, my sleep being disturbed by the pressure and inflammation in bladder. Beginning the use of Balmwort Tablets I noticed almost instant relief, and continuing to use them I am now totally well and relieved of all pain and distress from which I suffered. I am glad to recommend Balmwort Tablets as a reliable beneficial medicine and trust others may find relief and freedom from pain and distress as I did, etc."

The above letter is a true statement and is on file in our offices. Balmwort Tablets bring relief when other medicine has failed. Sold by leading druggists, $1.00 per tube.—Adv.

ADOPT $800 BASE FOR TEACHERS

Rural Education Board Lays Law on Contracts.

Members of the Allen-co. board of education, representing village and rural districts, adopted resolutions at a meeting Saturday that no board would hire a teacher who had signed a contract with another board, unless released by the first.

The minimum salary of $800 a year was decided upon. Wages above that amount will be gauged by success in teaching, experience, professional training, difficulty of the teaching position and co-operation of the teacher with associates in school work.

Fifty members of 22 boards of education were present.

The former session was devoted to a discussion of the revenue law as it applies to finances of the various districts.

Dr. J. J. Sutter, county health commissioner, explained the new health code, as it concerns county schools.

The meeting was held in the office of C. A. Arzenbright, county superintendent, who by virtue of his office, was chairman of the meeting.

SCHOOLS CLOSE

Children of the public schools are now on their Easter vacation. Lima schools closed Friday night and will not re-open until Monday, April 5.

Many teachers will be absent from the city, attending the conferences of teachers' organizations and boards.

HIGH INTEREST NECESSARY

For the first time in the history of Lima it is necessary to issue securities bearing six per cent interest. The bonds for the property owners' share of the Collett-st. sewer amounting to $485,000, which were offered last week at five per cent without attracting bidders, will be offered again soon at six per cent.

STUFF STARTED

Damages of $650 are asked of Franklin R. Mason and Harley Wright, owner of the Mason flats, by Eugene O'Keefe, in a suit in common pleas court Saturday. One hundred dollars is for a valuable tree, which O'Keefe alleges was cut down by the owner of the flats when they built a driveway.

M'ADOO, DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL ASPIRANT, GIVES STORY OF LIFE

NUTSHELL STORY OF W. G. McADOO'S LIFE
1863—Born near Marietta, Ga.
1883—Appointed deputy clerk, U. S. Circuit Court, Tenn.
1885—Admitted to the bar.
1885-1892—Practised law at Chattanooga, Tenn.
1895—Married Sarah H. Fleming.
1892—Moved to New York.
1902—President of Manhattan & Hudson R. R. Co., formed to build tunnel system under Hudson river.
1909—Fourth tube opened under Hudson river.
1913—Death of Mrs. McAdoo.
1913—Secretary of Treasury under President Wilson.
1914—Married at White House to Eleanor Randolph Wilson, daughter of President Wilson.
1917—Director-General of Railroads.
1919—Resigned as Treasurer and Director-General.
1920—Practising attorney in New York.

W. G. McAdoo

away with it and came out alive." McAdoo's first venture into national politics came in 1912, when, as a delegate from New York, to the Baltimore Democratic convention, he was among the first to propose the name of Woodrow Wilson, then governor of New Jersey, for the presidential nomination. He became chairman of the Democratic national committee and later became acting chairman for the greater part of the post-convention campaign. When Wilson announced his cabinet after his inauguration in 1913, it included the name of William Gibbs McAdoo as Secretary of the Treasury. Then four years later, when, as a war measure, the government took over the rail system of the country, he was on "McAdoo's shoulders that felt the burden of administering the lines."

"I thought I was pretty busy with treasury affairs, but it was a man's job when I had to divide my time between the treasury department and the railroad administration. The only way I kept my health was to force myself to stay in and eight hours every day whether I slept or not. I usually spent sixteen hours at work."

"I used to start the day at 8 o'clock with a light breakfast with Mrs. McAdoo. Then I would walk to the treasury department carrying with me two portfolios—one containing papers of the treasury and another for the railroads. I spent the forenoon clearing away business, conferring with heads of departments and talking to a dozen or so of the country who had business with the treasury."

"At 1 p. m. I usually walked back to my house for luncheon, and then I would ride to the Interstate Commerce building where the railroad administration was housed. I rarely ever left my office there before 8 o'clock at night. Then I went home, taking with me my two faithful portmanteaus of documents."

"As soon as I had finished dinner—which Mrs. McAdoo usually saved for me, even if I was late some nights—I went to my bedroom, undressed and jumped into bed and then on a little writing set I began going over papers I had brought home with me in my portfolios. On some I would check an "O. K.", on others I would ask more details, and so on. I tried to make myself turn out the light at midnight every night."

During the war, McAdoo was rarely seen at cabinet dinners. When he was not in Washington, everybody learned to know he was either on a tour of inspection of the railroads, or in a speechmaking trip for liberty loans. Many a time, he said, he was gone for two and three weeks at a time, sleeping every night on the train, transacting urgent business and keeping in daily touch with his own home bases at Washington. McAdoo stayed on the job in Washington until February, 1919. He then resigned, telling President Wilson he was forced to take the step to guard his health and to retrench his diminishing finances.

"I was not a rich man, as many people thought," the former secretary explained later to his friends. "I didn't make any money out of the tunnels and I didn't save a great deal while in Washington. Dr. Grayson used to tell me if I didn't slow down, I would not come out alive. I felt I owed it to my family to get back into my own business and make provisions for my wife and children."

McAdoo's first wife was Miss Sarah H. Fleming, of Chattanooga, Tenn. He was married to her while practicing law in East Tennessee. They had six children. Mrs. McAdoo died in 1912.

On May 7, 1914, McAdoo was married at the White House to Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, daughter of the President. They have one child, a daughter, and live in New York City.

"McAdoo's three sons—now 30, 24 and 19 years old respectively—enlisted in the navy at the outbreak of the war. The eldest, F. H., is a junior partner with his father in the law offices of McAdoo, Cotton & Franklin, New York."

"I don't like to be referred to as a 'candidate' for President," McAdoo usually objects, when reporters talk to him. "I am not a candidate and I don't expect to become one. I not only am not seeking to line up state delegations for me, but actually I have requested that my name be withdrawn from the ballot to allow delegates to San Francisco to go uninstructed so they may use their best judgment as to candidates when they are ready to vote."

Can the Baby Roll With Safety on your Rugs?

Youngsters will toddle and tumble and roll. It's a happy, human trait—but have you made provision for it in your home, so that the health of your little ones can be properly safe-guarded?

A good precaution is to be sure that the washable rugs in the nursery, in the bed rooms, and elsewhere in the home are always properly clean.

And it is no trouble to keep them that way if you just send them to us once in a while for laundering.

Instead of trying to struggle with them yourself—it is fatiguing work for even the most robust of women—simply make a roll of them and give them to our driver when he calls for your family bundle.

Our laundering method is good for rugs. We use oceans of crystal-clear water on them; souse them in creamy suds; rinse them again and again, and they dry them in a sweet, warm breeze. You will be delighted with their restored newness.

Telephone and we will send our salesman.

ASKS DECREE NOT BE ALLOWED

Wife Declares She Does Not Believe in Divorce.

Declaring she entertains the attitude of the Bible towards divorce, Mrs. Udie M. Walcutt, 116 Shawnee-st., asked the suit of her husband, Wallace M. Walcutt, traveling salesman, be dismissed and that neither she nor he be given a decree.

In his petition, Walcutt charged his wife neglected her household duties to attend church. She is a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance. He declared that when she was at home, she made life unbearable for him. He left her in July of last year.

In her answer, the wife says they lived happily, save for the aggressions of her husband; that she always took care of her household duties and home, caring for her husband's interests and her children.

"Plaintiff admits she is a Christian and attends to her duties to her master and church," the answer states. Mrs. Walcutt asks that if the court sees fit to grant a decree, she be given alimony. They have three children, fifteen, six and five years old.

Mrs. Zelma Tracy dismissed her petition for divorce Saturday against C. O. Tracy, 955 W. Kibby-st. She charged cruelty.

Mrs. Frances Wehner asks divorce from Frank Wehner on the grounds of desertion. They were married in South Bend, Ind., in February, 1910, and have no children.

Mrs. Rose Root has filed suit for divorce from George Root, charging desertion. They lived together five years and he left her in October, 1917, she says.

Mrs. Neve Sundermann Bloxham seeks a divorce from Carl Bloxham, to whom she was married in Huntington, Ind., in July, 1912. She says he provided her neither home nor the necessities of life and forced her to leave his home, supplied with only enough money with which to travel.

NEW CHURCH MAY BE ERECTED

High-st. U. B. Congregation is Planning for Building.

A proposed new church building, to cost $50,000, is to be erected by the High-st. United Brethren congregation at High and Cole-sts., according to plans announced Saturday by Rev. R. C. Crosby, pastor, 956 W. High-st.

The structure will be erected on the site of the present building. The nearest Protestant church is over three-quarters of a mile away. A strictly modern building for worship, instruction and service is planned.

A building so arranged and equipped that a modern school of education, fully graded and correlating with instruction given in the public schools, is under consideration.

Solicitors will call upon people of the west side of the city in a few days and ask them to aid the cause. "With the growth of Lima we believe people of the west side will be glad to aid the plan where, if they may worship in a modern church within the province of their own residence district," Rev. Crosby said.

The congregation is not large and the plan to ask outside aid was approved by the quarterly conference and the conference superintendent, Rev. M. R. Ballinger.

The plan is approved by Mayor Burkhart, Paul Crawford, trustee of the Lima Merchants' association; W. H. Clarke, secretary of the Lima Chamber of Commerce and D. L. Rupert, city auditor of Lima, as well as many other leading business and professional men.

We sincerely wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives, also the I. O. O. F., the L. O. O. M., the A. U. U. and the B. B. for their kindness and floral offerings extended to us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, also Rev. Canby for his consoling words and beautiful hymns.

BENEFIT PICTURE TO AID LIBRARY

Kiwanis Arranges for Screen Play at Regent.

The Kiwanis club, in their plans to assist the Carnegie library, has arranged for the presentation here on April 5 and 6 of "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," at the Regent theatre.

It will be the first time the picture is ever shown, being released upon those dates. Three shows will be held in the afternoon and three in the evening. Tickets will sell for 50 cents, half to go to the library.

Funds will be used for installing new books for decorating the library and for increasing the salary of employees. A concerted campaign for the sale of 10,000 tickets will be made, reaching every home in the city to the factories and workshops.

E. T. Lippincott is chairman of a committee on general arrangements with O. S. Jumo and Edward Moman and 28 members. A general committee of thirteen women, wives of members of the Kiwanis Club, have been named to assist in the work.

This committee consists of Mrs. Francis W. Durbin, Mrs. Fred D. Bradley, Mrs. John L. Cable, Mrs. Fred Bizantz, Mrs. Seward A. Folson, Mrs. Kent W. Hughes, Mrs. Wallace P. King, Mrs. Edgar Moman, Mrs. M. Austin Potter, Mrs. C. F. Heller, Mrs. Fred B. Williams, Miss Alma Branson, and Mrs. James L. Jolley.

Mrs. E. J. Custiss and Mrs. B. A. Gramu have been named a special committee on music and features.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who during the sad bereavement of our daughter and sister, also for the beautiful flowers, the Rev. Winecree for his consoling words.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Little and family.

All members of the Solar Lodge No. 733, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at the hall Sunday at 1:30 o'clock to attend the funeral of Brother Charles Metherell.

MEDICOS TO MEET

Lima to Entertain Ohio Physicians April 6.

Physicians from cities and towns within a radius of 50 miles of Lima are expected to attend the medical and surgical clinic to be held at St. Rita's Hospital, April 6.

Drs. W. W. Beauchamp, V. H. Hay, D. C. Yingling, C. L. Steer, G. R. and Kier, parent, the committee in charge of the convention, Saturday reported that present indications were that over 100 physicians would be in attendance.

The convention will be an all-day affair and will be featured by talk of Dr. Dean Lewis, Chicago. Dr. Lewis will speak at the night session, which will be attended by physicians from various counties and members of the Allen County Medical Society.

Regarding the meeting Dr. W. W. Beauchamp Saturday said that the surgical staff of St. Rita's hospital will have operative work the entire day and that the medical staff will have an interesting number of cases and papers to put before the meeting.

OHIO SEEMS SURE THING FOR WOOD

Aggressive Campaign Makes Strong Stand Evident

POPULAR UPRISING STARTED

Has Fallen Heir to the Old
Roosevelt Followers

By MARCUS.
Unless Major General Leonard Wood is headed off in Ohio in the next four weeks he has that nomination for President on the Republican ticket clinched and the others might as well give up. It has been shown that he has the share of the wealth of the nation back of him. His canvass has been shrewd and aggressive—shrewd in that he has ignored geographical lines and has appeared as a national candidate. His aggressiveness is his entrance into the states in which delegates were to be gotten and his simulation of a great popular uprising in his behalf. The rest has been done for him by his opponents, there being no finer example of this than Ohio.

To many members of the party, Wood is nothing but a name but a halo has been built around it and he has fallen heir to the old Roosevelt following whether he is entitled to it as a true spiritual heir or not. He has it, that's all.

It does not matter that the Wood candidacy is being sold to the people somewhat along the lines of Bill Sunday religion. It is getting the delegates. And by the way, Bill Sunday's son is a press agent, which may account for some of the picturesque stuff put out. The Wood bunch will fight anywhere for a delegate and at this early date they can count upon a majority of three-quarters of a hundred where no one else counts anything to speak of. Their claim to North as well as South Dakota made them all notice this week, as well it might. The movement cannot be stopped by denouncing it for, of necessity, the denouncing must be done by those of the school not as especial favor with the populace and that makes it appear that Wood is an anti-boss candidate. All of which is true where and only where, the bosses fail to experience conversion to him.

It is certain that the anti-Wood alliance will be closer knit in the succeeding days as the necessity of stopping the doughty general becomes more necessary and the situation of the allied forces more desperate. But did I ever stop to think that no alliance in recent decades ever won out against the popular favorite? Recall a case if you can. The alliances made much noise, but in the end collapsed. The charges and counter charges about huge bank rolls and "black bars" has made little impression, for one reason because it is a fortune matter in which this stuff is expected and also because the War and Menne Committees of Will H. Hall are now making the crowds as there is in this fact a discouragement to the crowds who otherwise would take up the charge. There will have to be something definite shown, that's sure.

But let no one think that the conviction of Senator Timmin H. Newberry, of Michigan, made no impression.

in Ohio. What has been said is that charges between factions as to the dough never cause much stir. But the material which they are now storing away for each other may send Republicans of both factions to the bow-wow later on. Wherefore, we warn them both here and now to stop it. When the Newberry verdict is read, the date of 1916 instantly resurged to minds. The primary expenditures in the Republican camp contributed mightily toward re-election of Senator Alton Pomeroy as he as well as every man with a spoonful of sense knows, that's what makes the Wood-Harding dough charges so many loads of T. N. T. Still these matters have gone too far to be set aside as mere outbreaks of factional rash. The allocations stand, and, by George, they should be established or disproved. Having hitched up the Treaty the United States Senate ought to take up the matter of cleaning out these ugly rumors so that we may know whether the "residence" is for sale and who wants to buy it. In the face of the failure in one direction it could do nothing better than to try its hand in another.

There is said to be a peculiar satisfaction in making a smooth start in any great adventure. That satisfaction was the Governor's this week, it would seem when the Presidential Candidacy of James M. Cox made its formal bow to the nation. At the same time came the information that Kentucky is very favorably disposed toward Ohio. There may be others in the same category as the followers of the Governor hope. There is a pleasure, too, in the interest of Edmund H. Moore, who is enthusiastic in any project of which he takes hold. It is assured that Ohio's delegation is going to the San Francisco convention to win that nomination for its three-time Chief Executive. The Ohioans feel that it can be done if the proper efforts are made. The argument will follow the line of the argument, fairness, to all and good will with capital and labor, a trump card a way.

To those who had watched the course of the H. H. H. County Republican leader no surprise was caused by the action in proclaiming official neutrality of the organization. It seems better than an even chance that the same stand will be taken by other organizations in various parts of the state. The organizations originally leaned toward Senator Harding but he has slipped with them in the exact proportion in which he has failed to make an impression that he is a winner. It is a point to be remembered always in politics that the desire to turn up with the victors is one of the strongest motives where no principle is concerned. Thus far no one can discern any principle in the contest among the Republican candidates. It's a grasp for power—and that's all. The proof of this is found in the fact that no one has outlined any principles upon which he stands. Of course, there is voluntary universal military service into which the young men of the country will leap like small boys do into the wash basin.

Were this humble scribbler vain, he might not plume himself upon the discernment that led him long ago to say that the Peace Treaty would be the central issue in the next election unless the Senate ratified it—and now it is over, contrived, twisted, flayed, torn, frayed, reserved, restricted, nullified, dodged, diluted, etc.—but raised it, so that the American representatives who might sit with the mighty would hold a commission as complete as that of any other nation, there to agree, if agreement might be, or to register a disagreement. At this time there will be made no further prediction. If one is called for it may be said that the public mind has not thoroughly set but when it does, there will be spankings in sight for some one. The people have been kept out of peace and they will find who did it and why—and when they do—Wow! One can gain for himself an impression as to who does not want a "great and solemn referendum" by listening to the squawks. Just keep your own ear attuned! It's as good as ours if you will but use it.

One may say that not a great deal of noise is being created by the trip through Ohio by Hon. Glenn E. Plumb, framer of the plan which bears his name and which made some noise in this world a few short months ago. The reason seems to be that the public is weary of the railway controversy and wants to try out the new return to private ownership. In this state of mind all except a few protaxonomists care not to be troubled with the details of proposed Soviet plans for management. Still it must be borne in mind that the first reactions from private ownership have been highly unsatisfactory. Cars are rarer than ever, and even the farmers will not get sufficient fertilizer for spring crops and fuel has never been so hard to get as during the March cold snap. Nor do the transportation men see any prospect of betterment. Hence, the transportation problem is likely to come rolling back on us like a huge rock that we fancied we had rolled to a level and secure place—but had not—getting it merely half up the hill.

Some dispatch writer down Portsmouth way sends out the tidings that the local committee of Jacksonians in that center of shoe factories and escaped Kentuckians was rubbing the fur on Charley Hard the wrong way. Gracious heavens! They were not doing that when they adopted the resolution commanding the primary which Hard "abominates" along with his master, Senator Warren G. Harding. No, indeed! They were not. They were merely scratching the skin underneath the fur with a beak. That's all. Every time reference is made to the distrust of the primary by the Harding forces, who are all devotees of the 2:11 a. m.—fifteen-or-twenty-weary-men—table-and-all—style of politics (as expounded for the edification of the nation by Hon. Harry M. Daugherty) they hit the ceiling. It's like putting a handful of salt in an open wound. What grieves them is the story going around that his Honor, Justice Reuben M. Wainwright of the Ohio Supreme Court is likely to cut in for the nomination for U. S. Senator if General Wood gets as much as forty per cent of the primary vote. Under the circumstances who wouldn't wince? Quite incidentally this might make a vacancy on the Supreme Court bench since good usage if not the strict letter of the law would call for a resignation.

How often, to the grief of men and angels are motives misunderstood, misinterpreted, wilfully or even unconsciously! Could we check we might find it was the lack of understanding that caused more grief than all instances of cruelty combined. Now this remark is applicable to those who gave publicity to the story about Congressman Roscoe C. McCutcheon and his withdrawal from the race for Governor. He certainly fixed a nice place for Roscoe to light. But what's the use of providing a raft for a fellow who thinks he can swim across the ocean? The up-shot of the matter may be that Roscoe will be back after March 4 next in Canton, praying law, may be even making more money in a year than he would all his life in politics, and mayhap grateful to those who convinced him that the way to glory lay through the courtroom rather than the hustings. The manner in which the alleged fake tale was taken might have been a hint to him that it would have been well to follow the advice, but he would not. Hence, it seems the practice of the law veers for him, which may be also more than can be said for other aspirants for the great honor of being the second occupant of the Buckeye House in East Broad Street, Columbus.

Columbus, Toledo and Dayton must soon look to their laurels in the relative respective rank they hold as centers of population of Ohio, for now arises that bouncing city of Summit County, Akron to dispute their claims. It is evolving a great project of annexation to take in Barberton, Kenmore, Cuyahoga Falls and Silver Lake Village. The proposal would add 75,000 souls to the overflowing metropolis of rubber. It already claims close to 200,000, although the figures may be somewhat inflated. Under the proposed arrangement the city would not be far behind Cincinnati proper which is credited with 400,000 in the available prospective annexation territory. The growth of urban counties suggests the advisability of speedy submission of the constitutional amendment permitting city-county government, making a chance for real saving to the taxpayers. If we are looking for absurdities in government let us take the case of Cuyahoga County, pretty near one continuous city, but divided up into 73 taxing districts each with a separate set of books to be kept. If one saw a similar state of things in a state to which he was not accustomed the first expression would be of the ineptitude of the law-makers. It is time for a change.

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child, but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

May it even be so with our communities.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our very grateful appreciation and thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved daughter and sister Margaret; to all for the beautiful floral offerings; to Rev. S. I. Driver for his comforting words; and to the singers of Bluebell and Brethren churches.

JURORS DEMANDED ICE CREAM DAILY

And the Court Granted It To Them All

TOMBSTONE, Ariz. — "I gotta ave another of them cornucopias," impudently remarked a holdierly gentleman to the keeper of Tombstone's only soda fountain, located in Tombstone's combination drug store, cabaret, concert hall, news stand and cigar emporium.

"If that old fellow don't quit chasing me over here after cornucopias he's goin' to founder himself," the elderly gentleman went on.

It was a baitful carrying out the court's instructions with regard to the case of the Bisbee "deposition" jury.

"You gentlemen are to see that every want of these jurors is filled," was what Judge Sam Patton had told the three bailiffs the night he ordered the cowboy jury locked up for the remainder of the historical trial in which it is sitting.

Those antics were a signal for every juror to satisfy the least whim he had developed in long dreary months of riding ranges and facing the wind, sun and sand of the desert.

With one man the chief demand had been for tatum after a shave. Another is forcing the country to furnish him with a luxurious hand-cream which contains olive oil as a relief from the brand purchasable at the crossroads grocery.

But with one juror the demand is for ice cream cones. "Who the dis-puting member of the jury is, no one can tell, but that does not alter the fact that all Tombstone knows his failing for vanilla ice cream."

Just before court convenes in the morning a bailiff makes a hurry call at the soda fountain.

"One of them vanilla cornucopias," he says.

At noon he appears again. And twice in the evening—before and after the movie show—his ice cream cones for one, and the bailiff disappears behind the swinging doors of the courtroom.

His aggressiveness is his entrance into the states in which delegates were to be gotten and his simulation of a great popular uprising in his behalf. The rest has been done for him by his opponents, there being no finer example of this than Ohio.

To many members of the party, Wood is no king but a name but a halo has been built around it and he has fallen heir to the old Roosevelt following whether he is entitled to it as a true spiritual heir or not. He has it, that's all.

It does not matter that the Wood candidacy is being sold to the people somewhat along the lines of Bill Sunday religion. It is getting the delegates. And by the way, Bill Sunday's son is a press agent, which may account for some of the picturesque stuff put out. The Wood bunch will fight anywhere for a delegate and at this early date they can count upwards of three-quarters of a hundred where no one else counts anything to speak of. Their claim to North as well as South Dakota made them all notice this week, as well it might. The movement cannot be stopped by denouncing it for, of necessity, the denouncing must be done by those of the school not as special favor with the populace and that makes it appear that Wood is an anti-boss candidate. All of which is true where and only where the bosses fail to experience conversion to him.

It is certain that the anti-Wood alliance will be closer knit in the succeeding days as the necessity of stopping the doughty general becomes more necessary and the situation of the allied forces more desperate. But did we ever stop to think that no alliance in recent decades ever won out against the popular favorite? Recall a case if you can. The alliances made much noise, but in the end collapsed. The charges and counter charges about huge bank rolls and "black bags" has made little impression, for one reason because it is a factional matter in which this state is expected and also because the Ways and Means Committees of Will H. Hays are now making the rounds and there is in this fact a discouragement to the crowds who otherwise would take up the charge. There will have to be something definite shown, that's sure.

But let no one think that the conviction of Senator Truman H. Berry, of Michigan, made no impression in Ohio. What has been said is that charges between factions as to the dough never cause much stir. But the material which they are now storing away for each other may send Republicans of both factions to the howl-wows later on. Wherefore, we warn them both here and now to stop it. When the Newberry verdict as read, the date of 1916 instantly recurred to minds. The primary expenditures in the Republican camp contributed mightily toward re-election of Senator Atlee Pomerene as he as well as every man with a spoonful of sense knows. That's what makes the Wood-Harding dough charges so many loads of T. N. T.

Still these matters have gone too far to be set aside as mere outbreaks of factional rash. The allegations stand, and by George, they should be established or disproved. Having botched up the Treaty of the United States Senate ought to take up the matter of cleaning out these ugly rumors so that we may know whether the 'residence' is for sale and who wants to buy it. In the face of its failure in one direction it could do nothing better than to try its hand in another.

There is said to be a peculiar satisfaction in making a smooth start in any great adventure. That satisfaction was the Governor's this week. It would seem when the Presidential Candidacy of James M. Cox made its formal bow to the nation. At the same time came the information that Kentucky is very favorably disposed toward Ohio. There may be others in the same category as the followers of the Governor hope. There is a pleasure, too, in the interest of Edmund H. Moore, who is enthusiastic in any project of which he takes hold. It is assured that Ohio's delegation is going to the San Francisco convention to win that nomination for its three-time Chief Executive. The Ohioans feel that it can be done if the proper efforts are made. The argument will follow the lines of the statement, fairness to all and good terms with capital and labor, a trump card always.

To those who had watched the course of the Hamilton County Republican leaders, no surprise was caused by the action in proclaiming official neutrality of the organization. It seems better than an even chance that the same stand will be taken by other organizations in various parts of the state. The organizations originally leaned toward Senator Harding, but he has slipped with them in the exact proportion in which he has failed to make an impression that he is a winner. It is a point to be remembered always in politics that the desire to turn up with the victors is one of the strongest motives where no principle is concerned. Thus far no one can discern any principle in the contest among the Republican candidates. It's a grasp for power—and that's all. The proof of this is found in the fact that no one has outlined any principles upon which he stands. Of course, there is voluntary universal military service into which the young men of the country will leap like the small boys do into the wash basin.

Were this humble scribbler vain, he might not plume himself upon the discernment that led him long ago to say that the Peace Treaty would be the central issue in the next election unless the Senate ratified it—not mind it over, contorted, twisted, cramped, torn, frayed, reserved, restricted, nullified, dogged, diluted, etc.—but ratified it; so that the American representatives who might sit with the mighty would hold a commission as complete as that of any other nation, there to agree, if agreement might be, or to register a disagreement. At this time there will be made no further prediction. If one is called for it may be said that the public mind has not thoroughly set but when it does, there will be spankings in sight for some one. The people have been kept out of peace and they will find who did it and why—and when they do—Wow! One can gain for himself an impression as to who does not want a "great and solemn referendum" by listening to the squawks. Just keep your own ear attuned! It's as good as ours if you will but use it.

One may say that not a great deal of noise is being created by the trip through Ohio by Hon. Glenn E. Plumb, framer of the plan which bears his name and which made some noise in this world a few short months ago. The reason seems to be that the public is weary of the railway controversy and wants to try out the new return to private ownership. In this state of mind all except a few protagonists came not to be troubled with the details of proposed Soviet plans for management. Still it must be borne in mind that the first reactions from private ownership have been highly unsatisfactory. Cars are scarcer than ever, and even the farmers will not get sufficient fertilizer for spring crops and fuel has never been so hard to get as during the March cold snaps. Nor do the transportation men see any prospect of betterment. Hence, the transportation problem is likely to come rolling back on us like a huge rock that we fancied we had rolled to a level and secure place—but had not—getting it merely half up the hill.

Some dispatch writer down Portsmouth way sends out the tidings that the local committee of Jacksonians in that center of shoe factories and escaped Kentuckians was rubbing the furr on Charley Hard the wrong way. Gracious heavens! They were not doing that when they adopted the resolution commanding the primary which Hard "abominates" along with his master, Senator Warren G. Harding. No, indeed! They were not. They were merely scratching the skin underneath the fur with a heckle. That's all. Every time reference is made to the distrust of the primary by the Hardin forces, who are all devotees of the 2:11 a. m.—fifteen-or-twenty-weary-men—table-and-all—style of politics (as expounded for the edification of the nation by Hon. Harry M. Daugherty) they hit the ceiling. It's like putting a handful of salt in an open wound. What grieves them is the story going around that his Honor, Justice Reuben M. Wanamaker of the Ohio Supreme Court is likely to cut in for the nomination for U. S. Senator if General Wood gets as much as forty per cent of the primary vote. Under the circumstances who wouldn't wince? Quite incidentally this might make a vacancy on the Supreme Court bench since good usage if not the strict letter of the law would call for a resignation.

How often, to the grief of men and angels are motives misunderstood, misinterpreted, wilfully or even unconsciously! Could we check we might find it was the lack of understanding that caused more grief than all instances of cruelty combined. Now this remark is applicable to those who gave publicity to the story about Congressman Roscoe C. McCulloch and his withdrawal from the race for Governor. He certainly fixed a nice place for Roscoe to light But what's the use of providing a raft for a fellow who thinks he can swim across the ocean? The up-shot of the matter may be that Roscoe will be back after March 4 next in Canton, practicing law, may be even making more money in a year than he would all his life in politics, and maybe grateful to those who convinced him that the way to glory lay through the courtroom rather than the hustings. The manner in which the alleged false tale was taken might have been a hint to him that it would have been well to follow the advice, but he would not. Hence, it seems the practice of the law wears for him, which may be also more than can be said for other aspirants for the great honor of being the second occupant of the Buckeye House in East Broad Street, Columbus.

Columbus, Toledo and Dayton must soon look to their laurels in the relative respective rank they hold as centers of population of Ohio, for now arises that bouncing city of Summit County, Akron to dispute their claims. It is evolving a great project of annexation to take in Barberton, Konnersreith, Cuyahoga Falls and Silver Lake Village. The proposal would add 75,000 souls to the overflowing metropolis of rubber. It already claims close to 200,000, although the figures may be somewhat inflated. Under the proposed arrangement the city would not be far behind Cincinnati proper which is credited with 400,000 in the available prospective annexation territory. The growth of urban counties suggests the advisability of speedy submission of the constitutional amendment permitting city-county government, making a chance for real saving to the taxpayers. If we are looking for absurdities in government let us take the case of Cuyahoga County, pretty near one continuous city, but divided up into 73 taxing districts each with a separate set of books to be kept. If one saw a similar state of things in a state to which he was not accustomed the first expression would be of the ineptitude of the law-makers. It is time for a change.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child, but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

May it even be so with our communities.

JURORS DEMANDED ICE CREAM DAILY

And the Court Granted It To Them All

TOMBSTONE, Ariz. — "I gotta have another of them cornucopias," impatiently remarked a holdier gentleman to the keeper of Tombstone's only soda fountain, located in Tombstone's combination drug store, cabaret, concert hall, news stand and cigar emporium.

"If that old fellow don't quit chasing me over here after cornucopias he's goin' to founder himself," the elderly gentleman went on.

It was a bailiff carrying out the court's instructions with regard to the care of the Bisbee "deportation" jury.

"You gentlemen are to see that every want of these jurors is filled," was what Judge Sam Pattee had told the three bailiffs the night he ordered the cowboy jury locked up for the remainder of the historical trial in which it is sitting.

Those orders were a signal for every juror to satisfy the least whim he had developed in long, dreary months of riding ranges and facing the wind, sun and sand of the desert.

With one man the chief demand had been for talcum after a shave. Another is forcing the country to furnish him with a luxurious hand-soap which contains olive oil as a relief from the brand purchasable at the crossroads grocery.

But with one juror the demand is for ice cream cones. Who the dispensing member of the jury is, no one can tell, but that does not alter the fact that all Tombstone knows his failing for vanilla ice cream.

Just before court convenes in the morning a bailiff makes a hurry call at the soda fountain.

"One of them vanilla cornucopias," he says.

At noon he appears again. And twice in the evening—before and after the movie show—its "ice cream cones for one" and the bailiff disappears behind the swinging doors of the courtroom.

of DISEASE

Note the illustration and see how the Clerk, Bookkeeper or any office man can produce a curvature of the spine through incorrect sitting while at work.

Producing a curvature caused pressure on the Spinal Nerves. These nerves govern your health and when they are pressed upon through a derangement of the spine then the Nerve Force is obstructed with the result that the organs affected function abnormally and they are invaded by Disease.

Disease is caused by pressure on the Nerves and can readily be corrected through Chiropractic methods such as I practice which is recommended by Dr. B. J. Palmer, the greatest Chiropractic authority, as the most scientific and effective method known to the profession.

This Spinal Adjustment is absolutely harmless owing to its scientific points paramount of all other systems or health methods of the day.

Throw aside your prejudice which has been a bugbear to you and learn how to obtain health through a natural way which leaves no harmful results in its wake.

OUR HOUSING

PLANS are being made by leading business and financial interests of the city to solve the now growing critical condition in the supply of houses and apartments for the heads of families who must come to Lima, if our factories are to be supplied with men needed. There have been a number of plans suggested, some of them puerile, others with strings as long as on a kite, and still others totally unfeasible to solve the condition now facing the city.

Common sense probably will prevail in this housing problem as it usually prevails in all business problems. There is no dearth of saleable property in Lima. Consultation of the classified columns of this paper, of this date, will show any number of properties on the market, ranging in price from $3500 to $35,000. This proves conclusively that there is no need nor necessity for any organization which shall build houses merely to sell. On the other hand, consultation of the same classified section of this paper will show that there are mighty few, if any, and there were none at the time this was written, houses for rent.

To any employer of labor, we ask, what is the first question that a new employee directs at him? After coming to terms as to wages or salary, a new employee immediately inquires where he can secure a house. He has no desire to buy a house, for he not only has to satisfy himself that he wishes to become a permanent resident of Lima, but more than this, his wife must become content, make acquaintances and desire to reside within our gates. Granted that the employer can refer him to a rental agency, which in its turn will point out a nice new terrace, from five to six rooms rentable for a sum equal to 25 per cent of the man's wages, the first step in making a new citizen has been taken.

What is needed in Lima is two classes of rentable property; first the small type of cottage with a ground plot; secondly, the modern terrace with a furnace, built on the plan as developed in the crucible of war.

CONGRATULATIONS!

FOR City Hall and its family, congratulations are in order. It is a decided improvement to hear of better relations existing among the different members of the official family. Harmony is far more enjoyable at all stages than political venom; and while the new broom may not sweep as clean as its wielders had hoped, they on the other hand really gain in experience by retaining some of the older heads.

Kissing and making up often reveal the virtues, where virtues were unknown to have existed.

ABE MARTIN

Our League of Women Voters' met today and decided to scatter out instead of swarming. Wouldn't it be fine if our after dinner speakers would say so with letters.

THE DIFFERENCE

Would a city manager who holds office indefinitely be more likely than the present mayor to lengthen the term of the mayor?

Decidedly, yes. The best city government is the one which is the most responsive to the will of the people. The city manager holds office indefinitely, but only as long as he carries out the will of the people. The commission can be removed at any time and that is what happens if the desires of the public are ignored. A mayor knows his term is fixed by law and he does not have to take orders from the people unless he wants to. That is why he often becomes careless of the wishes of the people. The commission's term to four years would give him a chance to become twice as careless.

AS YOU LIKE IT

A LITTLE SLICE OF LIFE

How often has it occurred to you that this is a small world? The statement has been made before. But it still packs a punch. Well, about twenty years ago I had left our little town and located in a great city. The last thing he did before he left the town was to put the bean on me for five dollars. We often heard of him and his wonderful success. And how he was buying all the pavements along Wall street. And it was said and conceded by everyone that when he was not quite in Morgan's class, Morgan was about the only man who had him scared. I often wondered about the five, but never said anything. Because a lot of people were enjoying themselves bragging about his success. And it was far from me to throw a wrench into the machinery. But after a while, I got the big-town bug and the first man I met when I landed was this same J. H. H. And he remembered me by nicking me for another five spot. Now he is quite friendly. This great man, and is willing to borrow five any time and I had never expected to be on such intimate terms with a great financier. But, it's a small world.

"Is there a 'weaker sex'?" asks a learned New England professor. If the professor is looking for the light, he shall have it. Yes, there is a weaker sex. If he is a married man he should know which sex it is. (Prohibit the only reason he is in doubt is the fact that he is a bachelor.)

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.

DAD THE DODGER

Unfortunately it is impossible to publish some letters in their entirety, but these extracts from a letter written to me by an unfortunate boy of eighteen should interest dads everywhere:

"...but dad was distant and never told me anything. Dad never chummed with me, seldom took me anywhere but to church. I attended a technical school, all boys in the classes, but nothing was ever taught us about these things—what information we did get we got from a few fellows who had experience or claimed to have had it. I recently attended a party, for the first time in a year or more, but the girls present smoked and drank wine, the very best class of girls in town. I have found the moving pictures that are supposed to teach the evils of the black plague merely suggestive in the ordinary way."

Think it over, dad. Are you a dodger? Do you attempt to conceal your cowardness or indifference by assuming that YOUR boy is unlike other boys?

Remember that the investigations of the United States Public Health Service surgeons showed, that the average age at which boys receive their first proper instruction in sex hygiene is fifteen years, BUT the average age at which boys pick up this first improper sex misinformation is nine years. Dad, don't be six years late. The boy is worth much more than that. If you do not feel competent to teach the boy the truths of life, then obtain the assistance of your physician. Don't let the matter slide. The sliding is all downhill. There are very helpful books which a father, or a mother, may refer to for suggestions how to instruct children. One of the best I have yet seen is "The Parents' Guide," by O. S. Davis and Dr. E. F. A. Drake, published by J. L. Nichols & Co., Atlanta, Ga., and Naperville, Ill.

A real live dad will chum with his boys at every opportunity; it is as good for dad as it is for the boys. I feel sure that if every father and mother could read the letters I receive from boys and girls a great change in our educational system would be instituted without further delay. The young people have certainly not received a square deal at our hands. If we were to be marked by an unbiased teacher on our parental efficiency most of us would receive a C.

SAVING A NATION

REVAMPING OF THE French social system as a means of building up the population of that nation is now being advocated by a member of the Paris Academy of Medicine. He suggests the elevation of girl mothers to national heroines and the socialization of men in order that race suicide may be checked.

Much as the world sympathizes with France over the terrible horrors and devastation it suffered during the war, it can never subscribe to the doctrine of commercializing motherhood. The proposed plan is a slur and insult to the women of that country as well as to woman-kind in general. It is in contradiction of the teachings of God and the laws of civilization.

No nation can legislate to make legitimate and proper the bringing of children into the world other than thru the sacred bonds of matrimony without losing its place in the general order of civilization and it is to be hoped that France does not attempt to do so.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

THE week has seen a gradual turn for the better thruout the nation, with money coming down to earth at the close, in the New York market. Commodities continue to soften, but only in fractions. Belief of keenest students of political economy is that deflation will be very slow, with little or no element of collapse.

The presidential political campaigns are growing in interest and there is reason to believe that politics will play a big part in business before the next executive is elected. The nomination period is already bringing out movements for a business man for president, but up to date, General Wood is showing more strength than any of the so-called business men candidates.

In the Lima district, the cry for men and more men and houses and more houses continues. Lima's growth is now down to the fine science of providing a roof over the heads of the workmen wanted.

Retail trade is brisk; merchandise is more plentiful and better qualities are being offered than for several seasons past. There is a snap and a vim in the stores and stocks reflect up-to-the-minute styles.

LIMA SCHOOLS

WHILE the schools of various other Ohio cities have been struggling along thru lack of funds and sufficient room, Lima has been fortunate in having a seat for every pupil and an exceptionally low deficit when compared with other cities. This city is admitted to have one of the best school systems in the state and the fact that ample room has been provided during the rapid growth of Lima and the period of soaring prices speaks well for the men at the helm in school affairs.

Cleveland, already with a heavy deficit, has been using the relay system for classes and getting along with makeshift arrangements so that all pupils may attend school. The board of education is planning now to submit to the people a bond issue for $20,000,000 to provide more room. Four millions for building already authorized is being used up.

When figures of this kind are compared with the conditions in Lima, we may well rejoice over our schools.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is an unimportant day. Writings of all sorts are especially well directed today. Shipping comes under a sinister sign which may lead to international complications. Trouble with Great Britain is indicated. Persons whose birthday this is will have a successful year if they avoid speculation. Children born today will be restless and headstrong. The Woman Who Loved—And Earned

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

By JANE PHELPS

JEALOUSY—BITTERNESS—RESENTMENT

"What did Marion say when you told her, Robert?" I asked again. "Is that why you asked me not to preach. Because she didn't?" Then, "She isn't your wife. What difference does it make to her if you have no position? It will give you more time to spend with her—I suppose she thinks!" The look on Robert's face halted the hot words which fairly tumbled over each other. Once more I had let my jealousy make me say things I had not intended to say, and I was at once contrite.

"No—she isn't my wife," Robert said slowly, then "I think I'll go to bed, Gerry." "Yes, do. You will want to be fresh to look for a position," I replied, then crossed to where he sat and kissed him fondly. "Don't get blue, dear, you won't be out long." Robert went to bed and I took a pencil and paper to figure out just what we could do now that we had only my salary to depend on. Of course I expected Robert to secure another position at once, but he might not. I would manage somehow, but I felt almost sure Aunt Felicia would have to go; and equally certain that Robert never would tell her to, or the reason why we could entertain her no longer. "It's a good thing I did not give up my position when he asked me to," I said to myself as I realized that it would be hard for us to live where we were with Robert's pay stopped. "I wonder what Marion told him," I mused. "He never mentioned a word she said. I must ask him in the morning."

"She was sweet and sympathetic," he had said. I suppose he thinks I am neither, just because I am a good business woman. She's not his wife, and it is easy enough to be sweet when one is not affected, and does not have to economize because of the misfortune.

I had decided I could not buy a new coat I had looked at the day before. We could not afford it now that I had all the expenses to pay out of my salary.

I did not say it, even to myself, but I knew that in my heart I blamed Robert, that I was not sympathetic. I felt annoyance that our friends would have to know he had failed to make good. That he had not been worth promotion had hurt me cruelly, but that was nothing compared to this. And I knew Robert. He wouldn't gloss anything over; he would tell everyone he had been discharged, and why. I could not sleep, also I pretended to, because I knew Robert was also awake. In the morning—right after breakfast—we told Aunt Felicia. I nodded to Robert to tell her to go; but he only frowned and said nothing to her. It made me awfully cross. I would not go on paying for his relatives. I was willing to do anything I could for him, would try and not let him feel any difference, but I would talk at his relatives when he was out of work.

"I shall get another position soon," he had said when he told her, and she had assured him of her belief in him, and had sympathized with him to such an extent that I thought to myself, "He will be telling her she is sweet" next, just as I suppose he told Marion Hovey.

"Of course you will, and you mustn't be down-hearted. I know men who are prosperous today who laid the foundations of their success after being discharged as incompetent. And I am sure you weren't that; it was a mistaken idea of you on your employer's part."

"We shall have to economize!" I broke in, apropos of nothing. "I suppose you will, for a time." No offer to go accompanied the remark however.

"It is good thing for Robert he has a wife who can earn enough to take care of us while he is out of work. It costs a good deal for two to live now-a-days," I said acidly. "Yes, you should live in a less expensive place." Still no sign that she took to herself anything I had said or implied.

"We cannot do that? I must be comfortable when I work so hard. We will have to reduce in some other way."

er way." As there was no response to this I turned to Robert: "Walk a ways with me, Robert. I have something to tell you." Tomorrow—A Quarrel Over Aunt Felicia.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, never fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.

STOP CATARRH OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief. Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffing, blowing; no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, bring back the natural color and lustre to the hair faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

REALTY MEN SEE SPRING BOOM

High Prices No Bar to Future Building. Report.

Excessive prices, far in advance of their true value, demanded for old and "rundown" properties has boosted activities during the past week in vacant lots for building purposes.

Despite the prevailing high cost of building material the prospective home owner is making plans for spring building. Indications are that building in the spring and summer is a safe and profitable investment with the likelihood of prices staying at the present level.

Fred B. Williams of the Lima Real Estate Board sees in these signs increased activity for a long spring real estate boom.

Double houses are in the Lima market according to Williams. Other properties are available with only a few exceptions.

Williams says the Chamber of Commerce by the real estate board is in the process of planning a cooperative home building scheme. The plans are for the erection of the Home Building on an acre and a half of land on the corner of the intersection of the Lima and Main streets.

OBITUARY

Charles Edward Campbell son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Campbell, was born in Wapakoneta, Ohio, October 14, 1914, departed this life at the Lima City Hospital March 22, 1926, aged 5 years 5 months and 5 days.

He leaves the bereaved parents a brother John, besides many relatives and friends. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, St. Mary's and Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Robertson, Wapakoneta, great grandparents.

He was a bright little fellow, loved by every one. The world was made better by his short stay in it. He followed some larger boys to the top of a winding stair where at once of notices of death to guide him he fell a distance of 36 feet from a vacant space into which he walked off.

Death ended his misery an hour after the awful accident during which the father carried his baby from the scene of the accident to the hospital in his arms.

The family wishes to sincerely thank neighbors and friends for the many kindnesses shown them in the taking away of their loved one.

All A. I. C. members and their friends are invited to attend a Box Social at the Morris Arndt Wednesday evening, March 24. Come bring a box and have a good time. Lillian M. Doherty.

CHURCHES USHER IN PALM SUNDAY

Day Is to Be Observed By All Denominations.

Today is Palm Sunday. It ushers in the sorrows of Holy week with a burst of glory that is in striking contrast with the gloom cast over the days following, by thought of all they contained so many centuries ago.

In the Episcopal and Catholic churches of Lima, the day and the week are to be celebrated and in other churches of the city the lessons of the week are to be taught in various ways.

In the Catholic churches, the palms will be blessed. "Tiny bits of palm leaf" will be distributed.

Palm Sunday is a high festival in the church year. It commemorates the triumphant entry of the Savior into Jerusalem. It symbolizes the moment in His career when the thousand years' sleep from their exiles by the inspiration of the moment he had Him as a king and crowns Him with the royal homage.

After the brightness of the day, the darkest part of Lent is at hand. The last week of the Lord's living as a man is celebrated, the service working up to the tragedy of Mount Calvary which consummated the sacrifice that meant redemption to the world.

Pennings, on the evening of Holy Thursday and continuing until Saturday Catholic churches will chant "miserere" or "Lamentations." Without musical accompaniment the majestic mings of the old Gregorian music make the singing peculiarly eloquent of the sadness of the day.

In Christ church, Episcopal services on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will signalize the week. On Friday services commemorative of the three hour's agony of the Lord upon the cross, consisting of prayer, song and meditation, will be held.

At these services the story of the cross is told and brought closely to the lives of worshippers thru the solemnity of its physical accompaniment.

Other churches are not forgetful of the agony of the Savior and the week will be marked with appropriate services, especially those of Friday, celebrating the crucifixion of Christ, His death and burial.

In all the churches Easter Sunday receives special notice and the joy of recalling the Resurrection is made the majestic announcement of the return of spring and life to the land.

AGED WOMAN DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Mrs. Margaret Tehan 76 740 N. Main st., died at her home Saturday morning after an illness of a week from pneumonia. She was the widow of the late Eugene Tehan.

She was a member of St. Rose Catholic church and of the Altar Society. Surviving are Mrs. Charles Pflum Thomas Tehan, Miss Josephine Tehan Eugene Tehan, Mrs. Cary Doan and Clement Tehan all of Lima and W. A. Tehan, Toledo.

CHILD DIES

Margaret Stephens seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stephens 1030 Forest-ave died Friday night of pneumonia. She was the second child of the family to die within two weeks. Funeral services were held Saturday at 11 o'clock at the residence and the body accompanied to Denison, Ky. for burial.

OHIO ELECTRIC SUPPLY IS NEW LIMA CORPORATION

A new corporation, to be known as the Ohio Electric Supply company, 134 W. Spring-st., has been made with a capital stock of $10,000. The company will handle a complete line of electrical construction material.

Men identified with the company all stand high in the business of electrical supply and possess special ability in their line. "We selected Lima as the place for our location because we found this city to be more progressive and alive than other cities investigated," P. A. Goldman, manager of the new company said.

DECISION NOT MADE
The state utilities commission has not handed down a decision in the matter of the application of the Lima Telephone and Telegraph company for increased rates. It was announced last night. An expert from the commission will be here this week to go over the property and a ruling is expected soon.

SPRING SUITS

at Bluem's

Portray the Season's Newest Things--and Foretell What the Smartly Gotten Up Woman Will Have On for Easter.

"For Easter time this year we show for dress and street wear, too, some handsome suits of "chic" design; but mostly Navy Blue."

You will love the suits this year. They have that "snap and jump" so necessary to give an air of being well gotten together. You must see the suits to really appreciate clever ideas in designing—

We are featuring suits for young girls. Ask to see the "Chicken Models."

While the beautiful shades of Mole, Brown and a few others will be worn in suits, navy will predominate.

We recommend a timely selection to insure alterations and delivery for Easter Sunday wearing—

For a time, early, there was some question as to what the women would wear. Now it is an assured fact that suits will be worn by the stylish woman of 1926.

Models for Sports Wear are in the newer fabrics—

Preparedness in One's Wardrobe

The wisdom of having a well-equipped wardrobe at this season cannot be too strongly emphasized when we remember it is wearable three consecutive seasons. The advantages, therefore, of being prepared recommend your making an early choice. Prices and values are equally advantageous shoppers just now. It will pay you to give thoughtful attention to our ready-to-wear apparel.

BLUEM'S

An exceptional suit with the long lines—very "chic". The narrow belt is the very newest.

There is a Navy Tricotone close fitting belt model, button trimmed, which is the essence of perfection as to style.

The Navy Tricotones with tailored fronts and semi-box backs, military braid trimming which will give one the ultra fashionable appearance. The Pussy Willow Linings in the suits give the finishing touch to make them all that could be desired.

Fashions for the Jeune Fille

Appreciating that the flappers of today are the shoppers of tomorrow we have taken a genuine interest in providing these "almost" young ladies with frocks, suits, coats and sports apparel that is typically styled for the "seventeen" age. The beauty and charm of youth is reflected in the correct simplicity of this smart attire.

APPEALS COURT IS FRIENDLY PLACE

Judge Crow Gains Friends by His Courteous Treatment

IS DEAN OF THE REPORTERS

Other Associates Equally As Congenial to People

Members of the Court of Appeals, who have offices on the third floor of the Allen-Co. court house, although they serve 16 counties, fully sustain the high reputation of other offices of the building for courtesy and assistance to all who come within their province.

Judge Phil. M. Crow, who has for many years been a member of the court, has always held a high regard for the wishes of the public, when it comes to making anything possible in this line.

Judge Crow does not object to be stopped on the street and asked concerning any case over which he may have jurisdiction. He is a friend of the newspaper reporters and never too busy nor too tired to talk with them.

Judge William H. Kinder, Findlay, and Judge Kent W. Hughes, Lima, follow closely in the footsteps of Judge Crow. Walter M. Bowman, stenographer of the court of appeals, does not mind being interrupted by reporters, or those having business with the court, who continually trouble him while that body is in session. Whether he is taking dictation or engaged in transmitting a most difficult opinion, he is always ready and willing to stop to hand over the news or information.

Judges here handle cases which go to the higher court from Allen, Auglaize, Crawford, Delaware, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Logan, Marion, Mercer, Paulding, Putnam, Seneca, Union, Van Wert, and Wyandot counties.

These counties make up the Third Judicial district. Judge Kinder is presiding judge.

JAZZ LINED FACE IRONED OUT BY BEAUTY DOCTORS

LONDON, Eng. — In Paris they call it the "tired tango face," but in London it is the "jazz lined face." During the war the beauty doctors were rushed attending to many tired women workers. Long hours in the canteens gave their eyes and faces a weary look. Now many of the clients of the beauty doctors come to have massaged out fatigue-lines caused by dancing into the early hours of the morning. Even young girls have lines around the eyes and mouth from too many hours spent in dance clubs.

PRESIDENT GIVES ROOSEVELT D. S. C.

Wilson Mentions Extraordinary Heroism of Lieutenant Colonel

WASHINGTON.—The award by President Wilson, of the Distinguished Service Cross to Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt for extraordinary heroism, near Cantigny, France, May 28, 1918, was announced Saturday by the war department.

After the completion of a raid, Roosevelt exposed himself to intense machine gun, rifle and grenade fire, while he went forward and assisted in rescuing a wounded member of the raiding party, the announcement said. "At Soissons, July 19, 1918, he personally led the assault companies of his battalion and, although wounded in the knee, he refused to be evacuated until carried off the field."

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo. — Adam Jackson, a Negro, was hanged in the Butler county jail here late today for attacking Mrs. Emma Mann, a white woman, last month. He was 35 years old and was the first person to be executed in Missouri, since capital punishment was restored last July.

"BRUNSWICK BEFORE YOU DECIDE."

And NOW Brunswick Records

WE are introducing, after years of preparation, Brunswick Records. They, too, are unlike any you have known before. They bring a new principle in phonographic recording. Each Brunswick Record is interpreted by a noted director or an accomplished artist technically trained in the art of recording. Thus we unite the talent of the artist with the genius of the composer. This is a step which you will appreciate once you make comparisons.

We feel sure that you will recognize the betterment brought out by this idea. We want you to judge Brunswick Records by those same severe tests with which people have judged Brunswick Phonographs. And that is by comparison. We leave the verdict to you.

Remember—Brunswick Records will play on any phonograph with steel or fibre needle.

"Wildcats"

This sum is squandered annually in "wildcat" investments, according to Houston Thompson, Federal Trade Commissioner.

Anxiety to attain financial independence too often induces people of limited means to yield to the glittering promises of extraordinary reward offered by unscrupulous promoters.

Don't take chances with your principal for the sake of a small difference in the income returned. Our Bond Department will gladly advise regarding prospective investments without cost or obligation.

We recommend that small investors put their surplus where it will be perfectly secure and bring a certain unvarying income. A Certificate of Deposit or a Savings Account with this bank meets both requirements.

Love And Married Life

By IDA McGLONE GIBSON

A WOMAN'S MIND

The words of my nurse gave my mind an interest in another direction. I knew that she was right, although I did not tell her so. I did have to have an interest, an absorbing interest, to keep my mind from growing morbid. In this I am only very human. I think most of the unrest of the world is caused by lives which are devoid of interest.

That women compose the restless sex is perfectly natural because women have fewer interests than men. Most of them are absorbed in some man and whether that man is husband, son or lover, the result does not always make for peace.

In this transition period most women are unhappy. We have lost a great deal of the home interest simply because it is the ambition of every man to relieve his wife of every home duty, and we have not yet become satisfied with the frivolities and foolish social amenities with which man would fill our existence. We are not yet sure enough about what we really want to seek it.

REALIZES HER LIMITATIONS

I fully realize that I am not as strong a woman as Alice, who is able to vision life as a man sees it. The new ideas that come to the modern woman. She is a woman who is able to vision life as a man sees it. Neither am I as splendid as Helen in allowing my emotions to be in all to me. Helen practically has said to the world: "Love is all there is of life," while Alice insists that love is only incident.

What I want and what seems to me that which can only make life enjoyable is a place of existence where both heart and head are satisfied. I am quite sure that I only want John to treat me as a comrade as well as a sweetheart. I want him to think of me as a woman with a mind as well as a woman who is all heart and who has placed that heart irrevocably in his keeping.

I was still thinking all these thoughts and trying to adjust myself to the queer angle of life in which I found I was huddled when John came up the stairs and exclaimed on seeing me up and dressed:

"You are a most surprising little creature, Katherine! One moment you look and act as though you were at death's door, and the next you are quite the liveliest bit of femininity I know."

cause however young my face may look, my brain has grown with the years. Why, do you know, dear, if I were what you would have me be, I would be one of those awful things that the reformers of the world are now studying and thinking and writing so much about."

"Goodness, gracious, what is that?" asked John with an indulgent smile.

"A moron," I answered.

"You do think of the most horrible things," said John, a little gruffly. "Why don't you know that a moron is an irresponsible member of society?"

"Isn't that what you would have me be?" I said as I slipped my hand in his and pulled him gently toward the door.

Ten Minutes with this Elegant New Chalmers Tells You the Story

YOU find it starts at once; that it is running with amazing sweetness in a few seconds. You note no vibration. You call for speed and you get results. You tone it down and you detect a willing and perfect servant obeying every wish.

Ten minutes gives you a recast opinion on motor cars. Your admiration for a Chalmers deepens. You search for the cause and you find it in Hot Spot and Ram's-horn. You may or may not know that "gas" is worse this year than last, that it is becoming heavier and heavier and harder and harder to "burn."

Few engines have met this serious condition. The great Chalmers engine has. It takes the low grade "gas," throws it against the Hot Spot, which vaporizes the "gas" into a "cloud," and makes it "fine for fuel."

Ram's-horn, minus sharp corners and abrupt bends, rushes it to the cylinders at a velocity of 100 miles an hour. Thus the cylinders get a fuel that they can "burn," can "digest," instead of "lumpy" or "rainy" kind of "gas."

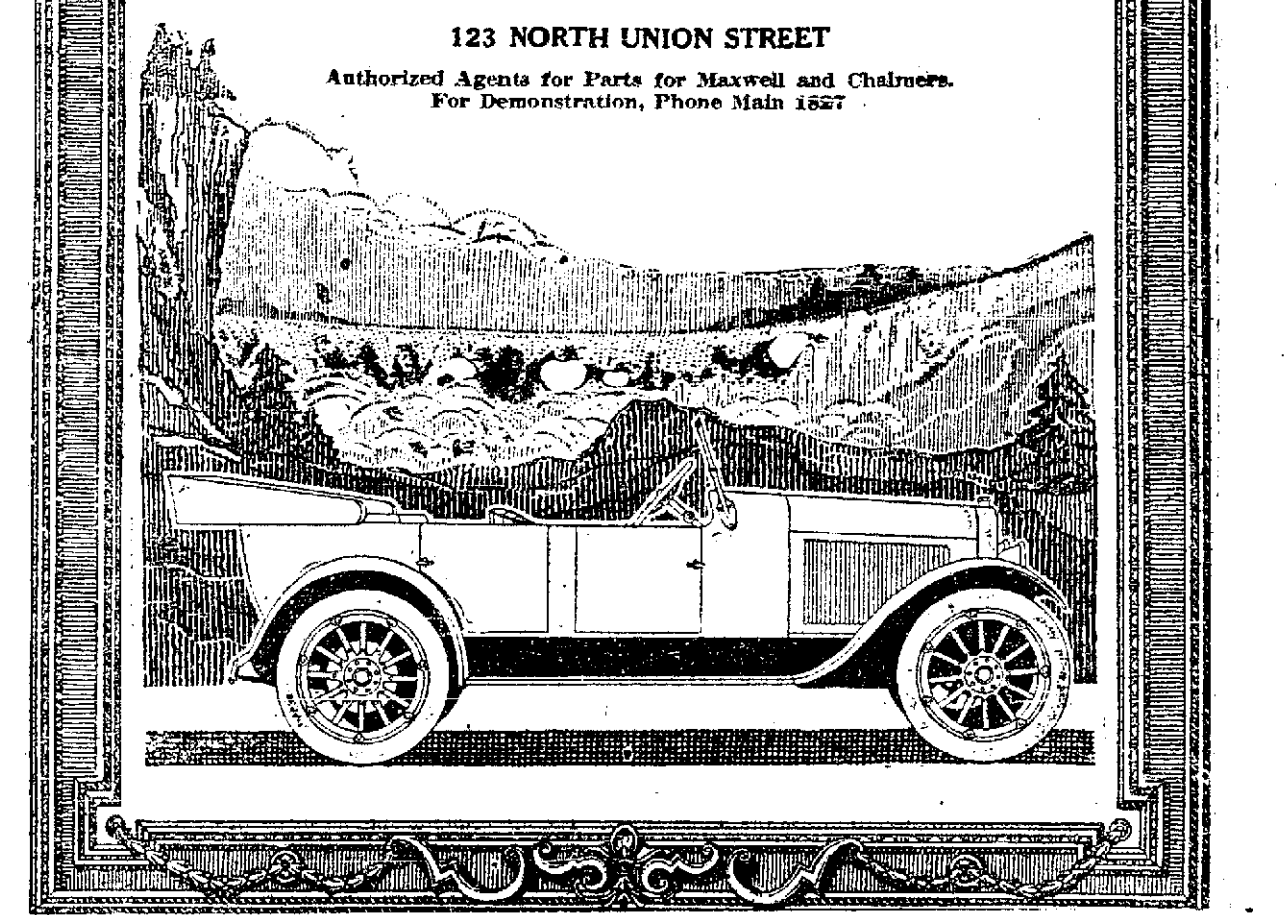

Not only can you note results in a distinguished smoothness of action, but in your repair bills.

For Hot Spot and Ram's-horn provide against thinned out lubrication and consequent burned bearings, scored cylinders, frequent fouling of spark plugs, and wasted "gas" through the exhaust.

Ten minutes will tell; and then you, too, will say Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

LONDON, Eng. — Guests living in a residential hotel in the Lancaster Gate district were recently given a fortnight's notice to quit on the grounds that the hotel was to be sold. Realizing the difficulty of finding some place else to live, they solved the problem by buying the hotel themselves. There were 70 guests at the hotel at the time. They formed a syndicate and bought the hotel and all its furnishings. The place is now run on the lines of a residential club. The hotel is run just to cover expenses and the fees of the residents are about half what they were before.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

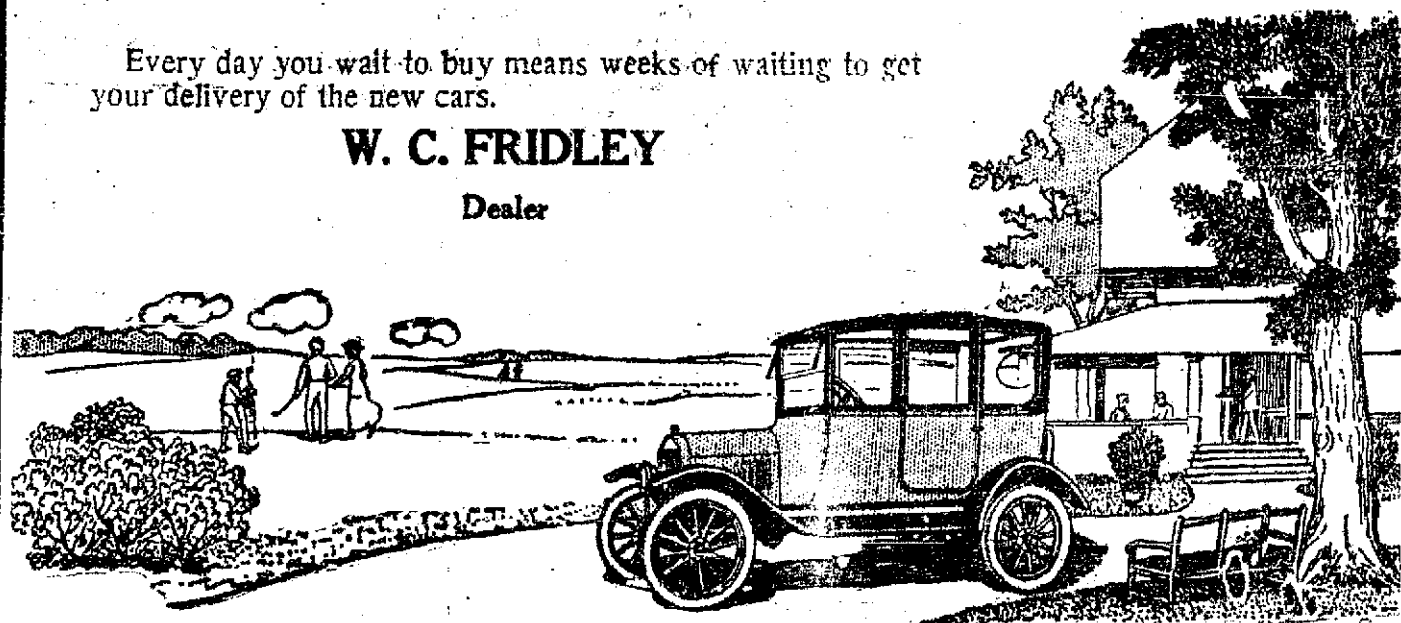

The Ford Sedan with electric starting and lighting system, demountable rims with 3 1/2-inch tires and tire carrier, for every day in the year has no equal as a family car. Just as popular on the farm as it is in the city. In fact, it fits the family demands in every vocation of life. Large, roomy seats, finely upholstered. Plate glass windows make it an open car in pleasant weather, while in rainy and inclement weather it becomes a closed car, dust-proof and rain-proof. It is ideal for social functions, the theatre, or parties; carrying the children to school, or for touring. It is not only comfortable, but really cozy, and above all, economical in operation and maintenance, and yet with all it has the Ford merits of strength and durability. We solicit your order for one. Come in and see it.

Ford cars are now sold each day of the month and each month in the year during snow, ice, rain or sunshine. Every model of Ford Cars are sold way in advance of possible delivery.

Every day you wait to buy means weeks of waiting to get your delivery of the new cars.

JOIN THE AMERICAN LEGION NOW!

NATURE

SECTION 1. THE AMERICAN LEGION is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect nor increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in The Legion; no member shall be addressed by his military or naval title in any convention or meeting of The Legion.

SEC. 2. THE AMERICAN LEGION shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment. No candidate for or incumbent of a salaried elective public office shall hold any office in THE AMERICAN LEGION or in any Department or Post thereof.

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ELIGIBILITY

SECTION 1. Any person shall be eligible for membership in THE AMERICAN LEGION who was regularly enlisted, drafted, inducted or commissioned, and who served on active duty in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States at some time during the period between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, both dates inclusive or who being a citizen of any of the United States at the time of his entry therein, served on active duty in the Naval, Military or Air forces of any of the Governments associated with the United States during the Great War; provided, that no person shall be entitled to membership (a) who, being in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during said period, refused on conscientious, political or other grounds, to subject himself to military discipline or unqualified service, or (b) who, being in such service, was separated therefrom under circumstances amounting to dishonorable discharge and has not subsequently been officially restored to an honorable status.

These are the doctrines the members of the American Legion are asked to subscribe to. Are they good enough for you, ex-soldier, ex-sailor, ex-marine? We are out to make these pledges good and those of us who are already members appeal to you who are eligible to join us. With you we can make the good old United States a better, cleaner, happier place in which to live. We must have your help, for it will be only by united effort that we will accomplish this.

It has been arranged to have members of the Legion see as many as possible of the ex-service men Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. They may miss you. If they do, don't feel offended, as there are about two thousand of you in Lima. Just go to the Manhattan Hotel, 125 West High Street where you will see the big sign and join up. There is another thing. The dues are $2.50 per year. This pays your local, state, and national dues and for a year's subscription to the American Legion weekly. The fact that the campaign is on the last days of the month may find you as short of funds as you used to be at that time when you were in the service. We have arranged to handle this by giving you until May first to pay your dues if you desire. Elsewhere in this paper you will find a blank application. Fill this out and mail to the address given there.

SUNDAY SEMI-PRO BALL PROMISED

Almost a safe bet now that independent baseball will be on the program for Sunday fans of this city. Such an announcement has not been made by those figured to run the Sunday sport here this year but all indications point to the semi-pro class of ball receiving the call within the next week.

Bernie Holloran, who will have charge of a Sunday team said that he had not yet decided the kind of baseball which would be played but was certain that Lima fans would be treated to some classy variety of the pastime.

Joe Kauffman, of the Sunday Industrial league idea likewise has nothing to comment regarding the proposed Sunday league.

With the silence of both magnates, the situation is the best clue to the situation.

Reviewing the dope sheet of the past ten days brings to light that practically every form of baseball has been dropped from the prospective list with exception of the Sunday independent ball.

Industrial heads at meeting Thursday night at the "Y" unanimously decided in favor of an eight-club Saturday afternoon league. At this session of baseball men the Sunday industrial baseball idea was not brought forth and census of opinion of men at the meeting was to the effect that a Sunday industrial league here would not equal the popularity which the independent ball is sure to enjoy.

Those at the industrial league meeting believed that the high-class Saturday industrial games would best serve the shop fans and that the independent ball would be the desired brand for Sunday. The Ohio-Indiana daily league idea for this city has likewise passed out of the question. Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce discussed the proposition at a meeting on Friday and came to the conclusion that backing the proposition at this time would require finances in such amount as would be impossible to supply. Due to this lack of finances heads of the proposed league have been notified that Lima may be considered as out of the circuit.

With the dropping of these two propositions there remains but one class of Sunday ball—Independent ball.

This variety of the sport will meet with the approval of the majority of fans and with the usual competent men in charge will result in first class performances being staged weekly at the Murphy-st. grounds.

HIGH SPOTS IN THE CAREER OF EUROPEAN CHAMPIONS

The history of Georges Carpentier, Frenchman and European heavyweight champion, has been printed many times. Here is the dope again, in tabloid form, on this war hero who is now in the U. S. and is expected to meet Jack Dempsey before returning home.

Carpentier was born at Lens, France, January 12, 1892. Is 5 feet 11 1/2 inches tall. Weighs 170 pounds.

Began boxing in 1907, when fifteen years of age, as bantam.

Won French title in every class from bantam to heavyweight and became English middleweight champ by defeating Jim Sullivan.

Won heavyweight title of Europe by defeating Bombardier Wells. Has fought many American fighters including Harris Lewis, Willie Lewis, Frank Klaus, Billy Papke, Joe Jeannette and Gusboat Smith. Klaus and Papke scored knockouts over Carpentier. That was several years ago.

Enlisted in army at outbreak of war. Served through. Was wounded twice. Decorated three times.

Surprised boxing world by knocking out Joe Beckett, British champ, in 53 seconds in London last winter.

Married his childhood sweetheart shortly before sailing for U. S. Arrived in U. S. March 23.

PENNSYLVANIA WINS BASKETBALL HONORS

PRINCETON, N. J.—University of Pennsylvania pin tossers won the intercollegiate championship here Saturday night by beating the University of Chicago 23 to 21 in the deciding game of a three-game series.

Chicago copped the first game, Penn took number two and came back strong in the deciding game winning by a two-point margin.

The guarding of the Penn team was the feature of the rubber game.

JOHNSON BREAKS RECORD
ITACHA, N. Y.—Cornell won the dual track meet here Saturday night from the University of Michigan, 46 to 40.

Carl Johnson, Michigan star, broke the world's record by skimming over the 70-yards low hurdles in 7 3/5 seconds, beating Earl Thompson's record of 8 1/5 seconds.

PENSIONS PROVIDED FOR Percent of Salary To Be Paid Into State Fund

The Lima City board of education must include in its budget for next year the apportionment for teachers under the State-wide Teachers' Pension or Retirement system, which becomes operative September 1, 1920.

boards of education direct is 5.57 per cent of the pay roll, in addition to the monthly or regular pay roll.

Of this 5.57 per cent, 2.5 per cent is what is known as the Normal Contribution and will remain constant from year to year; the remaining 3.07 per cent is what is known as a Deficiency Contribution and will be deducted each year with the accumulation of funds in the State Treasury until, as is expected, the 2.5 per cent by Board of Education and the 4 per cent from teachers will be adequate for all retirements.

After the next school year 1920-21 pay to other past 70 years of age (and teachers past 60 years of age or with 25 years of experience or both mixtures). The pension or retirement is based on length of service and age, but on the average salary for the first ten years of service, payable annually for life.

While all teachers in service after September 1, 1920 will contribute monthly 4 per cent of their salaries, such teachers as do not serve sufficient time to become beneficiaries under retirement will draw from the State fund, upon leaving the schools, all that they have contributed and compound interest on the same the rate of 4 per cent. No teacher will lose any part of the fund he contributes upon withdrawal from school work, though he may not teach the required period of 36 years or be of the age required for retirement.

Holy Week
BeginsFew Social Events Will be Held This WeekElaborate Plans for After-Easter Season

Today is Palm Sunday and with it begins Holy Week. For that reason there will be few social events during the next seven days. Then comes Easter with its beautiful services in all churches. Good Friday on April 2, will also be observed in Lima churches with appropriate services.

Altho Holy Week will be marked with few large social events, the calendar will be well filled with the regular club meetings and a few informal affairs. The members of the younger social set are making extensive plans for a number of entertainments for the week following Easter.

The Wayfarer's club are making plans for an elaborate, yet informal Easter dance at the club on Easter Monday, April 5th. This is expected to be an unusually interesting affair and the committee in charge, including Harry Strasburg, Francis Clark, Richard Jenkins, Paul Clark and Gene Neely, is putting forth every effort to make the affair a great success. An out of town orchestra is to be secured to furnish music for the occasion.

A benefit card and dancing party will be featured at the Elk's Home Wednesday, April 7th, by the St. Rita Sewing Guild. This will be an informal affair.

Another affair in which the younger set will participate will be the Scroller Spring dance to be given at the Wayfarer's club on Wednesday, April 17th. Brice Keating, the president of the organization, announces that it is to be a very informal affair. The ragpicker's orchestra has been secured for the occasion.

On Tuesday of this week Miss Dorothy Collins, S. Colest, will entertain with a luncheon at the Lima Club for the pleasure of Miss Martha Andrews, Miss Marian Sullivan and Miss Hazel Wright, brides-elect of the early Spring. There are innumerable other affairs being planned for the pleasure of these brides-elect.

The active members of the Scroller club entertained with a progressive dinner and dance Friday evening.

How to Make Up The Dolly SistersFor the home, the street and social affairs. Sane, sensible suggestions by

INTRODUCING THE DOLLY SISTERS

The Dolly Sisters, two of the most beautiful young women on the stage, and certainly expert advisers on the art of making up, are going to give you a series of valuable lessons on improving your looks.

Make up once belonged to the stage alone. Now it is a universal practice among women. It makes them easier to look upon, so why not? There is always a legitimate excuse for anything that makes life lovelier.

So long as women will use it, it is time they learned how. To the theatrical profession, successful make-up is bread and butter. It comes nearer being that to other women than they realize. It is especially so in business.

It is not a question of beautiful features, say the Dollys, because the plainest women have been made startlingly attractive by the use of good make-up, wisely applied. "We took a girl once," they say, "and she was as plain as an old shoe, but willing and anxious to look attractive. She became one of the most fascinating girls in our company. It was done thru the use of common sense, make-up properly applied, and care of her health, a big beauty secret."

In this series, the Dolly Sisters will tell you how to use rouge and powder and eye pencils, how to make the hands and arms and hair beautiful, how to maintain normal weight and how to make the most of your best features and the least of your unattractive ones. The things they tell you are the very newest and best in the art of make-up, and you can't afford to miss one of the lessons. Watch for them daily.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Martha Andrews, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Andrews, W. High-st., to Harold Seymour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seymour, W. Market-st., was made known at a delightful tea given by her cousin Miss Helen Basinger at the Elks' Home on Saturday.

It was an elaborate affair with an attractive floral arrangement of roses, sweet peas and freesias centering the large table at which were seated the bride-elect and a few intimate friends. On the smaller tables at which the remainder of the guests were seated were a centerpiece of sweet peas and roses. * Nut cups were dainty affairs of pink and place cards were of attractive original design.

The announcement of the engagement became known when guests attempted to bite into pink mints which were on each plate with the serving of the dessert and found a miniature card bearing the initials "M. A. to H. S. April 10th."

The bride-elect is one of Lima most popular members of the younger social set, and has made a host of friends since residing here. Mr. Seymour is a graduate of Harvard University and during the war was an ensign in the Naval aviation branch. He is now engaged in public work of colleges in the east with headquarters in New York city, where the couple will make their home.

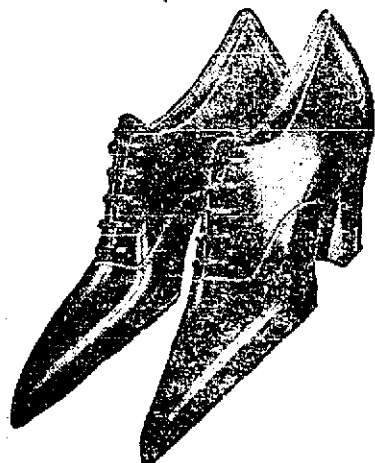

Miss Basinger's guests included Miss Nello Bigley, Miss Betty Laughlin, Miss Dorothy Schell, Miss Bess Sharpley, Miss Margaret Abrams, Miss Margaret Graham, Miss Mildred Catt, Miss Mary Katherine Roby, Miss Martha Roby, Miss Annette Roby, Miss Margaret Gregg, Miss Florence Price, Miss Catherine Greenslade, Miss Mary Parmenter, Miss Marian Dunn, Miss Dorothy Collins, Miss Hazel Wright, Miss Marvel Cook, Miss Eva Hopper, Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Hilda Leets, Miss Florence Kahle, Miss Magdalene Stolzenbach, Miss Gertrude Spanaglo, Miss Catherine Gramin, Miss Ruth Hamilton, Miss Pava Parent, Miss Violet Bradley, Miss Helen Hunter, Miss Dorothy Hunter, Miss Marian Sullivan, Miss Horace Spellacy, Miss Helen Pence, Miss Selma Weikelbaum, Miss Blaise Cunningham, Miss Dorothy Lee Robinson, Miss Ruth Parmenter, Miss Clara Bell, Miss Gall, Parmenter, Miss Laura Mac Gallispie, Miss Gertrude Boone, Miss Helen King, Miss Alice Bell, Miss Florence Eddy, Miss Emma Eddy, Miss Marian McCoy, Miss Veronica McGray, Miss Eleanor Isham, Miss Beatrice Sherwood, Miss Charlotte Siebers, Miss Louisa Lewis, Miss Ruth Wells, Miss Iona Baldwin, Miss Abigail Sullivan, Mrs. Guy Coppers, Mrs. Chester Cable, Mrs. Frank Wallace, Mrs. Seward Folsom, Mrs. Harry Gayer, Mrs. Henry Kilder, Mrs. E. L. Andrews, Mrs. Frederick Seymour, and Mrs. M. U. Basinger.

Mrs. Lee Copeland, State-st., entertained with a prettily appointed luncheon-bridge at the Elks' Home on Wednesday honoring Mrs. C. C. Deardorff, Cleveland, formerly of this city.

How Is Your Weight?

While it is true that too much weight is not to be desired yet the fact remains that many men and women are thin to the point of danger. This danger lies in their having no reserve force or nerve power to resist steady distress. A little extra flesh is needed by all to feel well and to look well, and to increase the weight. Physicians and chemists by experiment have solved the problem of increasing the weight and red corpuscles of the blood by the administration of a grain hypodermic solution, and this is usually followed by an increase of weight. Obtain in sealed packages and take for a period of several months, according to directions with package.

No concert this season has given more pleasure to music lovers than the one Friday evening, the second in the Artist Series of the Harman Mills course. It would be difficult to say which of the artists gave the most satisfaction for both a very good.

The program opened with four Chopin numbers—Nocturne in C Minor; then Maiden's Wish and My Joys. Polish songs transcribed by Liszt. It is often heard but rarely so exquisitely played as they were by Rudolph Ganz, whose interpretation was most unusual. The popular waltz in A flat closed this group.

Then came another treat in the rich Contralto voice of Carolina Lazari who made a good impression from the first.

Savio's "Lungi dal Caro Hone" was followed by Liszt's "Tremisch," a charming breeze of summer playing all through it; then Mayer-beers' "Aria—Idyl Signor, from Gli Ugonotti gave one a vivid impression of what this artist was in Grand Opera; her dramatic feeling away the audience as she sang for the interested and held her listeners.

Mr. Ganz gave a wonderful group including "Rune" in B Minor by Bach-Saint-Saens. Impromptu in G flat, by Schubert. He played most sympathetically. The Ballet Music from Rosamunde by Schubert—Ganz was an entrancing number in which one felt the composer's personality. Then followed Weber's great number "Perpetual Motion" rousing the music lovers to demand more and more of the generous artist, who could not have pleased them more than he did by the Martell number he gave perfectly.

Reunds of applause greeted Miss Lazari, her captivating smile winning hosts of friends, who were delighted to hear her in an interesting group of English songs, beginning with a lovely Cradle Song by MacFadyen; then "Love in a Cottage" by Ganz, which was so charming she had to repeat it. "When the Roses Bloom" (a Lima favorite) by Reichardt and "Beinberges" Chausson des Baccers called forth hearty encores, her lovely tones being so clearly brought out.

"Capriccio" for right hand was a very interesting piece of work done in a masterly manner by Ganz. "After Midnight" was unique and closed on the stroke of one. This was also by Ganz and much liked. Liszt's "Pavane Sonnet and La Campanella" by Pagnini Liszt were numbers full of difficult fingering. To repeated recalls he gave Der Leiber Stann and then one beautiful number by Rachmaninoff.

Miss Lazari closed her part of the program with Aria Amour viens aider by Saint-Saens "Last Hour" by Kramer and Roadways by Denmore was doubly appreciated the perfect enunciation of the singer, who was compelled to return and sing one very popular song, "Mighty Lak a Rose."

Part of the real enjoyment of the evening was due to the excellent accompaniment played by Mr. Isaac Van Grose to the songs.

Miss Magdalene Stolzenbach, a student at Mt. Holyoke College, is spending spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stolzenbach, W. Market-st.

SOCIETY

For the pleasure of the members of the M. E. club and their husbands, Mrs. Clyde Myers, Mrs. R. Wildoner, Mrs. Roland Pape and Mrs. Herman Tuble entertained with a delightful party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wildoner, of Brice-ave., on Friday evening. Cards and dancing furnished diversion, and at the close of the game, high scores were held by Mrs. Earl Leeds and Mrs. Frank Cheney, who were awarded dainty prizes. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations and cut flowers were very much in evidence. A delicious three-course luncheon was served at a late hour, the tables being decorated with flowers. Green cathedral candles were the only illumination and dainty nut baskets in green and white were used as favors. Novel paper hats were distributed during the dancing.

Members present included: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leeds, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Benroth, Mr. and Mrs. L. Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Drosch, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Allgier, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tuble, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Pape, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wildoner. Guests other than members were Mrs. A. B. Socks and Mrs. Pomeyer, of Toledo, and Mrs. G. McComb, of Detroit.

The Ft. Wayne News and Sentinel recently printed a lengthy article on "Will Women Care to Vote?" Among the women they quoted the opinion of one who, two years ago, took a course in Home Service work in Lima and did field work here, Mrs. N. D. Doughman. She is acting head of the Home Service work for Red Cross in Ft. Wayne. She said "My experience has been that where women have suffrage they discuss problems of vital moment more assiduously and carefully than do the men. I have observed this very vividly while in California. Why at the ladies club meetings and other functions, in a great many cases the discussion of political issues entirely took the place of the pink tea frivolities of other days. They discussed the merits of various candidates for the respective offices with much greater earnestness and effort to arrive at the correct conclusions than the men ever did. And on election day, all the women got out and voted. In one of the voting places the crowd of women, who had to wait for an opportunity to cast their ballots was so great that one of the candidates ordered several truckloads of chairs on which they might rest while waiting to vote."

The Young Ladies Aid Society of the First Congregational church will meet on Monday evening, April 5th, with Mrs. Wolford, of N. Collett-st. Mrs. C. N. Scott, S. Nye-st., welcomed the members of the Jay Dee club at her home Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in needlework and social chat and in a unique contest. Mrs. Albert Heydinger, and Mrs. E. C. Wingate were awarded prizes at 5 o'clock the hostess served a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Wingate was the only guest of the club.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. R. Sharp, N. Collett-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kohler, of West Elm-st., charmingly entertained a group of intimate friends of their daughter, LaVera, in honor of her eighteenth birthday, on Friday evening. Dancing and music was enjoyed throughout the evening and at a late hour a dainty three-course luncheon was served. A color scheme of green and white was used in the decorations and also in the appointments of the luncheon. Daffodils, jonquils and other spring flowers made the rooms attractive.

Guests for the evening included Misses Elsie Parker, Arue Wagner, Alice Parker, Betty Gray, Messrs. Jack Roe, Ralph Webb, Russell Bodkins, John Kohler, Joe Scherrer, George Bodkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bodkins and the host and hostess.

The Clifton club will hold a meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. George Kirk, W. Wayne-st. All women golfers of the Shawnee Country club will meet Tuesday at 10:30 o'clock at the Lima Club to make plans for the summer. This is a business of importance and every member of the Woman's Golf club is urged to attend.

Miss Donna Shappell, S. Collett-st., is home from Oberlin Conservatory for her spring vacation, returning to college next week.

Mrs. Herbert Thomas, N. Jameson-ave., assisted by Mrs. O. Ben Schultz, delightfully entertained the members of the Amstad Bridge club with a luncheon-bridge. The club was formerly known as the Amity club but at the meeting the change was decided upon. Dainty gold art baskets filled with jonquils and yellow tulips centered the tables. Nut cups were of yellow and score cards were hand painted in shades of yellow.

Following the afternoon of bridge Mrs. E. J. Curtiss and Mrs. William Feely held high score. Guests were: Mrs. E. R. Lindesmith, Mrs. B. A. Long, Mrs. William Feely, Mrs. Welch, Spenceville, Mrs. Frank Downing, Mrs. Oscar Thomas and Miss Mollie Thomas.

Plans were discussed for a dinner at which the husbands of the members will be guests.

Mrs. Grace Enk, W. Market-st., will entertain the members of the Arbutus club at her home on Monday afternoon. This will be an afternoon on Civics. Mrs. W. L. Mackenzie will present a paper on "The City Management Plan." Mrs. S. M. Williams will lead a discussion on the needs of Lima and Mrs. W. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. H. S. Moulton, and Mrs. C. C. Mosher, will also take part in this discussion. Mrs. A. B. Gray will talk on "Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities." Mrs. J. E. Grosjean will speak on "Commissioners of Education." A paper on "A Soldiers' Memorial for Lima" will be presented by Mrs. Enck; Mrs. F. H. Cuthbert will read a paper on "Why the War on the Public Square?" Vacant lots and public play group will be discussed by Mrs. Charles H. Clark.

The Young Ladies Circle of the Epworth M. E. church will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Flinchbaugh, 857 Bellefontaine-ave.

The Jovian club met Monday evening at the home of Miss Alvina Woll, N. Elizabeth-st. In an unique contest Miss Emma Keller and Anna Glick received the club prizes, and Miss Margaret Francis was awarded the guest prize. A dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Evelyn Woll.

Guests of the evening included: Misses Marie Welker, Margaret Francis, Evelyn Woll, Lillie Keller, and Mrs. Dale Chenoweth. Club members included: Misses Sophia Hoff, Ruth Walti, Anna Glick, Emma Keller, Callie Schultz, Marie and Anna Muelbauer, Nina Hell, William Haines, Mrs. Ross Wolfe, and Mrs. D. Jennings.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 12 with Miss Emma Keller.

Miss Beryl Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Perkins, 714 Greenlawn-ave., and Herbert Mowrey, were united in marriage Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the church parlors of the Trinity church. The impressive rite ceremony was read by Rev. Walter D. Cole. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony.

The bride wore a charming suit of blue tricot and her corsage was of sweet pears and roses.

The couple left for an extended wedding trip thru the West after which they will make their home in this city.

Miss Edythe Vandskoyce, 391 McPherson-ave., and Guy O. Duck, Miller-ave., were united in marriage Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the office of Justice of Peace Hamilton. Miss Rhea Duck, sister of the groom, and Herbert Woll, witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Woll will leave on Tuesday for Shamrock, Okla., Tuesday morning, where they will make their future home.

The Senior Class of the Central High school scored a hit in the presentation of its annual play "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" at the Central Auditorium Thursday evening.

Playing before a filled house, the students gave the best entertainment that has been given in years. Miss Elizabeth Moulton as Mrs. Temple played the leading part with great success. She was well supported by Eugene O'Connor as Mr. Temple.

James Black representing the comedian, Mr. Brown, elicited great applause from the audience. Other pupils taking part in the play were: Bertha Snow, David Steine, Marian Argenbright, Wilma Corder, and Francis Ebner.

The women of the Lone Hand Euchre club held a covered dish party at the home of Mrs. Charles Eagerman, S. Cool-st., Thursday afternoon. At 12 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served. Those enjoying the affair were: Mrs. Howard Miller and daughter, Miss Martha; Mrs. I. W. Basinger, and daughter, Virginia; Mrs. E. C. Yingling, Mrs. Clint Loy, Mrs. C. N. Scott, and daughter, Ruth Evelyn, and the hostess and Richard and Betty Hagman.

Miss Elnora Spannagel, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Spannagel, W. Market-st., and Miss Pauline Wemmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer, both students at the Birmingham School for Girls, Birmingham, Pa., are spending the spring vacation with their parents.

Mrs. Ruth Basden, Delaware, who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Charles Basden and numerous other relatives and friends in our city this week, has returned to her work at Wesleyan College, Delaware.

Mrs. Alice M. Hill, W. Spring-st., has gone to Chicago to spend a fortnight with her daughter, Alice Hill, who is there engaged in an investigation for the Russell Sage Foundation.

Mrs. M. McCullough, W. Market-st., is home from an extended trip thru the south and visiting relatives in Texas.

Mrs. Harriet Motter has been visiting relatives in Middletown this week.

Mrs. W. A. McClure, Gadston, Alabama, is visiting numerous relatives and friends in Lima and adjoining towns.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Holmes, W. Market-st., who have spent the past few months in Los Angeles, are now in Santa Barbara for several weeks' stay before returning to their home in Lima.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mariatt, Normal-ave., entertained E. W. Van Fleet, Ewart, Michigan, several days during the past week.

Mrs. T. R. Thomas, State-st., will entertain the members of the Bay View club at her home on Monday afternoon.

Joe Fieck arrived home Saturday to spend the spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fieck, N. West-st. Mr. Fieck is a student at Notre Dame University.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Stadler, Elmwood Place, are entertaining their son, William Stadler, a student at the University of Michigan.

Thomas Flynn, a student at St. Mary's College, Russell, Ind., will arrive the first of the week to spend the spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Flynn, W. First-st.

The El Pintou club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Chamberlain, N. Washington-st.

Miss Mabel Williams, Cridersville, has accepted a position in this city.

Misses Orpha Wells, Georgia Gordon, and Mabel Williams, were guests of Miss Freda Carl in Wapakoneta, Wednesday evening.

Miss Effie Shinsaberry is leaving soon for Cleveland, where she will make her future home.

Miss Estel Lynch, a student of Rudolph Reuter, the noted pianist at Chicago, is spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lynch, S. Collett-st. Miss Lynch appeared in a concert in Manitowac, Wis., on Thursday evening as accompanist to Arthur Kraft and Rudolph Reuter was soloist of the evening.

The reception of the Floral Guild which was to have been held Wednesday afternoon at the Memorial Hall has been indefinitely postponed.

The St. Martha's Guild of the Christ Episcopal church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Hare, W. Market-st. at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. B. F. Thomas, State-st., will be hostess to the members of the Altrurian Club at her home on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Mildred Lynch, a student at Ypsilanti Normal College, is spending the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lynch, S. Collett-st.

HILARIOUS WEEK FOR BROADWAY

Freak, Called "Musk" Falls to Arouse Enthusiasm

THE REVIEW OF THE RIALTO

Theda Bara Vamps Her Way Thru "The Blue Flame"

By DIXIE HINES
NEW YORK. — The past was a more or less hilarious theatrical week in the Metropolis. Commencing with a freak entitled "Musk" who vamped her way thru "The Blue Flame" to a virtuous end, and then to relieve the situation, "What's in a Name" of the frills and furbelows order. For good measure there was a revival of "The Piper" and Walter Hampden discarded "George Washington" for "Hamlet."

"Musk" is one of the poorest examples of whatever it is supposed to be an example of that has been seen for a long time. It was produced by a new firm of producers, in which a gentleman with an incipient imitation of George Bernard Shaw's whiskers, and an artist who has done much creditable work in staging and designing notable productions. But "Musk" is not one of them, and not even the good acting of Blanche Yurka could save it. Miss Yurka fell with the others in the cast. Yvonne Garrick was quite the most brazen hussey of a stage type that has been seen, and the she was colorful and good to look upon, the opportunities afforded her were few and even those were spoiled by the atrocious and glaring color schemes. As to Henry Mortimer, who played the husband and went to jail, the consensus of opinion was that he got his deserts only if he had gone to jail in the first act for life rather than the third act for a year.

"The Blue Flame" was collected by a group of authors for the stage debut of Theda Bara. Miss Bara will probably make no personal pretensions as an actress, but it cannot be denied that she furnished an evening of original and unique entertainment. Beginning the play as a sweet and innocent young thing who is resurrected from the dead by her atheist sweetheart by the means of electricity, on thru a series of vamping episodes which follows the discovery that he had failed to resurrect her soul when he performed this miracle upon her body, she encompasses the death of most of the members of the cast, necessitating their replenishment by a new lot each act. But Mr. Woods, the producer, has been liberal in this respect, as he was in securing talented supporting players.

It is a weird melodrama, the vamping episodes eventually proving to be dramas of the underworld, only who is thus brought to see the light and "the faith of our fathers" as Miss Bara in a virtuous mood puts it. The audience was puzzled as to how it should be taken, so they decided to take it smiling when they did not take it in boisterous laughter, but Miss Bara was not upset by this. She had her task cut out for herself, and she went thru with it. She vamped in the most approved style, with and without frills. She was not particular when she vamped except that she insisted that the subject be a man.

It cannot be said that her mark in a dramatic school would be much above zero, but as an individual entertainer the critics will tell the world that she is unique, and there appears to be about 5,000,000 people in New York who are unwilling to take the verdict of the press but insist on seeing for themselves so it looks like a fair season for star company and management. And after all that is the purpose of the play.

Nancy Van Kirk, a brilliant entertainer from the west started the first of her Children's Hour of Song and Story at the Plaza in the week, and it proved highly interesting and entertaining. Eventually these entertainments will be molded into a permanent children's theatre, which is sadly needed in New York. Miss Van Kirk is the first artist who has been able to galvanize the idea into a practical proposition.

Ruano Bogisla, the noted Gypsy singer and dramatic actress, also was a special contributor last year. Her Gypsy, Slavic and Hungarian folk songs, given at the Greenwich Village Theatre, was one of the most fascinating entertainments of the week. It will be a real treat to the music and drama lovers of the country to know that Madame Bogisla with her company plans these entertainments in the important cities. They are well worth the favorable comment bestowed.

"Mama's Affair" and "The Storm," two of the successful Broadway productions are to be staged in London this season. The former is the play by Rachel Barton Butler which won the Harvard prize this year, and which is now making a substantial profit for both Miss Butler and her manager, Olive Morosco. She and he are to have another play on Broadway this season.

"The Passion Flower," another brilliant dramatic success, thanks to Nance O'Neil the star and the powerful Spanish dramatist, Jacinto Benavente, is to be made into an opera. Miss O'Neil will also make it into a successful attraction for the theatres of the country.

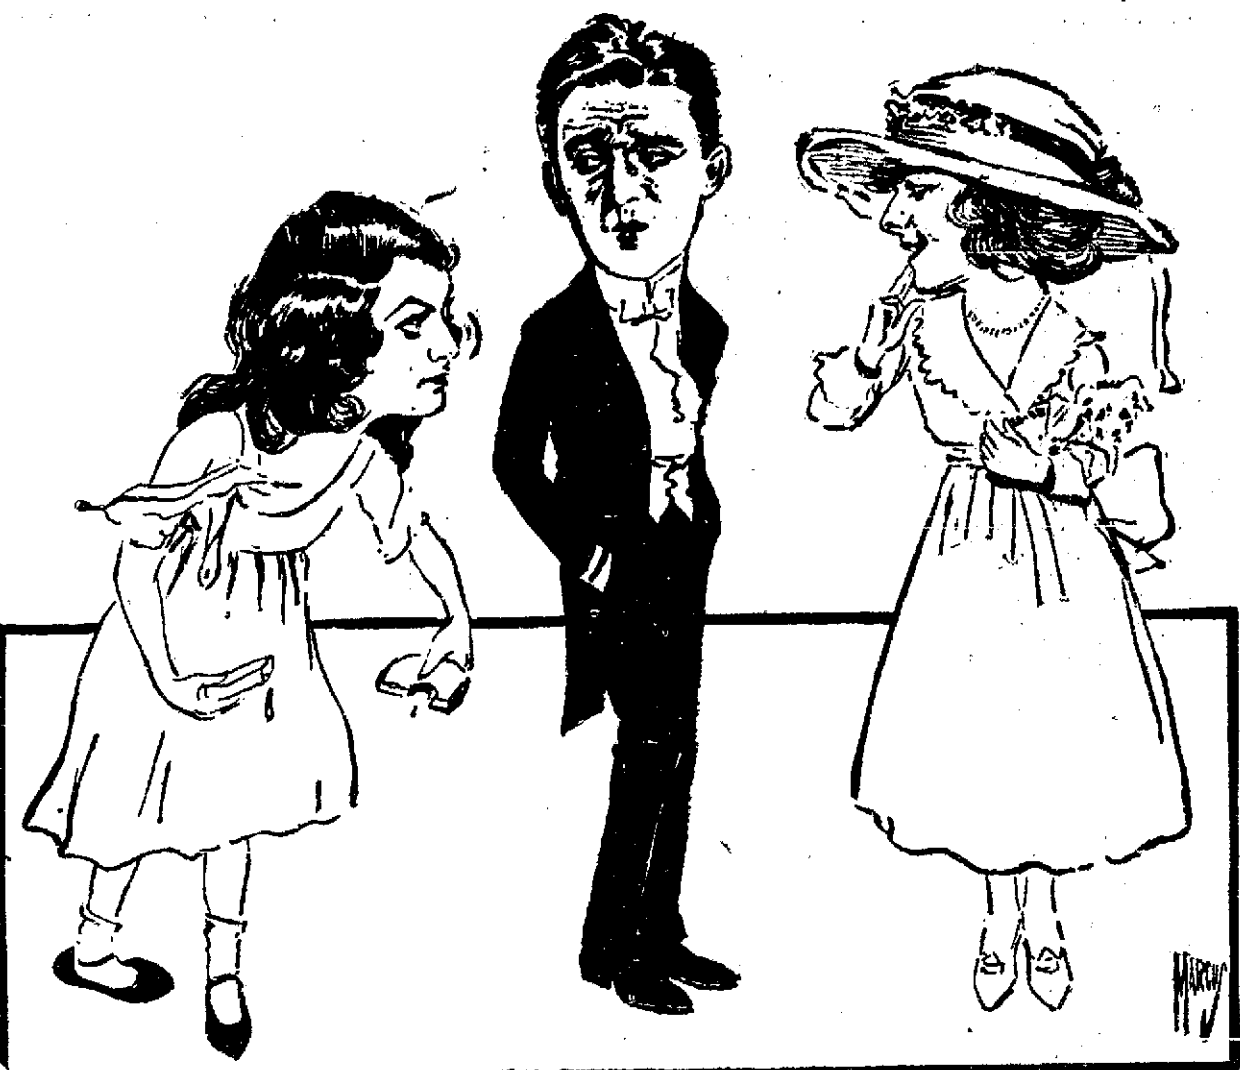

Rachel Barton Butler, dramatic author will stage a series of plays for children at the Little Theatre after Easter. She has made an adaptation of "Alice in Wonderland" for her first presentation.

"The eternal triangle." Thomas Kelly as "Willie" between Lillian Ross as "Jane" the 10 year old "villain" and Lael Davis as "Lola Pratt" the baby talk "vamp" in Stuart Walker's production of Booth Tarkington's famous comedy "Seventeen."

"Seventeen" Coming To Faurot This Week

It's glorious to be seventeen. And it's that that is one of the joys of the past, the next best thing is to live it again through your eyes and ears. Here is just what you may do when Stuart Walker's New York production of Booth Tarkington's "Seventeen" comes to the Faurot next Saturday matinee and night.

There are the joys and follies of youth, all the little episodes that make life at this age so amusing to others and so serious to youth. A visit to "Seventeen" is guaranteed to wipe out twenty or thirty years of your age, for one evening at any rate, and young people love it.

Here is a Middle West town, the curtain is drawn back and reveals just such an assemblage as you may find in hundreds of such places, the youth, William Sylvannus Baxter his imp sister, Jane, who like Nemesis never fails to shadow him and show him up, his hated rival Johnnie Watson, the girl of his puppy dreams Lola Pratt with the baby talk lure and her adored dog Flop. And they dance and sing into their little porch flirtation, even the farewell dance where William Sylvannus in father's evening clothes is sentenced to indescribable misery as the escort of the fat Ethel Doke, just as half of the audience has done.

Humorous, wholesome, youth-giving and happy in its sincerity as the story is, much credit must be given to the cast whose members give the impression that they are actually living the various episodes. Thomas Kelly has become known from coast to coast for his delightful characterization of Willie, the youth just beginning to realize his coming manhood—life is never quite so important and serious as at this stage—Lillian Ross, the impish Jane, is the infant terrible of ten, in looks, in manners, in gestures, and in that curious mixture of innocence. Lael Davis who plays the fascinating Lola Pratt, became the toast of the town during the show's run in New York and Boston.

BRILLIANT ARRAY OF STARS

Lima Playhouses Offer Pictures of the Newest Variety.

REVIEW OF WEEK'S OFFERING

All May Be Satisfied By Diversified Entertainments.

By Esther Wagner.

This week's collection of stars and pictures to be seen at Lima theatres truthfully can be said to be the most brilliant array seen here for some time. Photoplays that have been drawing nation-wide praise will favor theatregoers, presenting such stars as Lew Cody, Anita Stewart, Elsie Ferguson, Mary Pickford, Olive Thomas, Ora Carew, Bryant Washburn, Theda Bara and a host of others. Each of these bright lights in the motion picture world will be seen in their newest vehicles, be they mystery, melo-drama, comedy or otherwise.

Lew Cody, the he-vamp of the screen, will be the attraction as the Regent for four days starting Wednesday, in his newest photoplay, "The Beloved Cheater." Mr. Cody is the ultra-smart, handsome hero of the screen that the ladies just can't resist, and in this picture he is cast as a regular heart-breaker. Beautiful Elsie Ferguson, emotional actress, comes to the Faurot theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday in "Counterfeit," a society drama. Richard Barthelmess and George Fawcett play leading roles in the massive D. W. Griffith production "Scarlet Days," which will be shown at the Faurot today and Monday.

In "Footlights and Shadows," showing at the Lyric today, Olive Thomas has a role just suited to her talents, as she was a member of the Zeigfeld Follies before she joined the movies. On Wednesday and Thursday "Under Suspicion" with Ora Carew in the stellar role, will be seen at the Lyric. Altho Miss Carew is not exactly well-known, she is a very attractive and talented actress.

Theda Bara in "A Woman There Was," at the Majestic today, has a new role, different entirely from her usual vampire parts. In this picture she is cast as a south sea island princess and her work in the production is above the average.

Presented in a new picture, Anita Stewart, at the Regent today surpasses anything she has yet been seen in. The picture is "The Fighting Shepherdess." Bessie Love is cast in the picture at the Orpheum today, "Pecunia." Today is also the last showing of the Lima-made photoplay, "How Could You," with local amateurs in the leading roles. The scenes are all taken in Lima and the film includes pictures of ex-president Taft at his arrival at Memorial hall.

Anita Stewart in "The Fighting Shepherdess", a story of life and love in the great west at the Regent today.

MOVIE DIRECTORY

REGENT—Today, Monday and Tuesday, Anita Stewart in "The Fighting Shepherdess." Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Lew Cody in "The Beloved Cheater."

MAJESTIC—Today and Monday, Theda Bara in "A Woman There Was." Tuesday and Wednesday, Mary Pickford in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." Thursday, Irene Castle in "The Dip From Bohemia." Friday, Geraldine Farrar in "The Strongest Vow." Saturday, Gladys Brockwell in "The Sneak."

ORPHEUM—Today only, Bessie Love in "Pecunia" and last showing of the Lima-made photoplay, "How Could You." Vaudeville acts between reels.

FAUROT—Today and Monday, S. W. Griffith's "Scarlet Days," with an all star cast including Richard Barthelmess and George Fawcett. Tuesday and Wednesday, Elsie Ferguson in "Counterfeit." Thursday and Friday, Bryant Washburn in "It Pays to Advertise."

LYRIC—Today, Monday and Tuesday, Olive Thomas in "Footlights and Shadows." Wednesday and Thursday, Ora Carew in "Under Suspicion." Friday and Saturday, Harry Morey in "Hill of a Soul."

RIALTO—Today only, William Farnum in "Wings of the Morning." Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Elinor Fair and Albert Ray in "Vagabond Luck." Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Tom Mix in "The Feud."

REGENT—How a simple little girl, thru a series of strange incidents, arose from the depths of a road-house, and uncertain percentage to a position of wealth and social power forms the theme of "The Fighting Shepherdess," from the book by Caroline Lockhart, in which Anita Stewart is starred. This is a first National production and will show at the Regent for three days, starting today.

The natural inclinations of the girl are against the circumstances in which she is placed, and it so transpired that by chance a reclusive sheep-herder with a sense of chivalry arrived at the tavern to champion her cause against an objectionable character. "If you can't out-fight your man with a woman's weapons, do it with a man's weapons," says Miss Stewart as Kate Prentice in "The Fighting Shepherdess." Miss Stewart's out-battle the heavy man-odds of the great sheep country in a personal encounter in which she uses her wits as well as her hands. Wallace MacDonald, Noah Beery, Walter Long and a strong cast support the star.

OLIVE THOMAS, "FOOTLIGHTS AND SHADOWS" Selznick, Pictures.

vous form, proving an unconquerable attraction to all the male members of the cast. We have a man who is unable to prevent palpitations of the various feminine hearts. Not only do we have this unusual character, but there is a most unusual situation. We have reformers in our midst at all times—some of them have proclaimed to the world at large that they were opposed even to kissing. We support the star Regular Regent prices of 10 and 25 cents will prevail for this attraction.

Photoplay fans of the city are on edge, so to speak, in anticipation of the forthcoming exhibition in the city of the new Lew Cody feature, "The Beloved Cheater." Distinct novelty characterizes this Lew Cody production. All of the time honored customs of stage and screen are shattered here. Instead of the dark lady with sin-have pictured in our minds eye the members of this cult as having long hair or short, according to sea and being generally undesirable as objects of occupation, but in "The Beloved Cheater" there is a most beautiful maid with very kissable lips who has been converted to these radical ideas. And she becomes engaged. And the man foolishly promises never to kiss her. But he is afraid to take any advice and acts like a caveman. Instead, he begs his friend Cody to teach his fiancée how to kiss—foolish fellow. How the girl is converted; how hearts are tangled and untangled and snarled again and what the Beloved Cheater finally decides on serves to make a most enjoyable photoplay.

LYRIC—Olive Thomas, who numbers among her admirers a major portion of the motion picture public, will have an opportunity to show her friends that she is an actress as well as a beauty in her new Selznick picture, "Footlights and Shadows," which opens at the Lyric for three days commencing today.

In the play Miss Thomas not only has a chance to display her marvelous beauty to advantage, but there are several moments in the production when she is called to rise to emotional heights and show her histrionic talent. Her role is that of a musical hall girl, singing in a midnight revue and is just fitted to her. Before entering screen work, Miss Thomas was a member of the Zeigfeld Follies.

One of the big scenes is a fire in a theatre when she is compelled to go down into the audience and save the man she loves from being trampled beneath the panic stricken mob. There is another scene in her apartment when her sweetheart flees furiously with a man who has made an insulting proposal to her.

A cast of screen favorites supports Miss Thomas, with Alexander Onslow as her leading man. The music at the Lyric is doubly interesting, the players now numbering nine. The Allison Orchestra has an added artist, making an ensemble of five players, while the All Star Novel-

LIMA, OHIO

THE CABIN

(LA BARACA) by VINCENTE BLASCO IBANEZ
Translated from the Spanish by Frances Hatfield and Beatrice M. McKota.

The river-bed as usual was dry. Some pools of water which had escaped from the water-wheels and dams which irrigated the plain wound in and out like serpents, forming curves and islands in a soil which was dusty, hot and uneven, more like an African desert than a river-bed. At such times it was all white with sunlight, without the slightest spot of shade.

The carts of the farmers with their white awnings formed an encampment in the middle of the river-bed, and along the railing, placed in a row, stood the horses which were for sale; the black, kicking mules with their ran canarions and their shining flanks all equiver with nervousness; the plough horses, strong and sad, like slaves condemned to eternal labour, gazing with glassy eyes at all those who passed as though they divided in them the new tyrant, and the small and lively nags, pawing up the dust and dragging on the halter fastened to their nose-pieces.

Ner the descent were the cast-off animals; earless dirty donkeys; sad horses whose coat seemed to be pierced by the sharp angles of their fleshless bones; blind mules with long stork-like necks; all the cast-aways of the market, the wrecks of labour, whose hide had been well-tanned by the stick and who awaited the arrival of the contractor of bullfights or of the beggar who still put them to some use.

Near the currents of water in the centre of the river-bed, on the shores which dampness had covered with a thin coat of grassy sod, trotted the colts who had not been broken, their long manes flying in the wind, and their tails sweeping the ground. Beyond the bridges, through the round stone "eyes" could be seen the herds of bulls with their legs drawn up tranquilly, running the grass which the shepherds threw them, or stopping lazily over the hot ground, seeing the longing for green pastures and taking a fierce pose when the youngsters whistled to them from the railings.

The animation of the market was increasing. Around each house whose site was being arranged, crowded groups of gesticulating and lequacious farmers in their shirt-sleeves, their ash sticks in their hands. This time, behind the grass which their long bowed legs, in sheep-skin jackets covered with patches and tin-caps, beneath which their black eyes shone feverishly talked, caressed, breathing into the faces of the customers, a though they wished to hypnotize them.

"But just look at the horse!" No face her lines—why she's a beauty!"

And the farmer, impervious to the gipsy's honeyed phrases, inserted the useful and uncertain grizzled at the ground, looked at the animal, touched his head, and finally said with a species of obstinate courage:

"All right, but I won't give any more."

To arrange the terms and solemnize the sales the protection of a shadow was sought under a big wooden solid small cakes or filled sticky loaves lined up on a zinc-covered table.

Batiste passed back and forth among the horses, paying no attention to the vendors who pursued him, driving his intention.

Nothing pleased him. All poor. You'll find him it was to find his accession! If he had not been compelled by necessity he would have left without purchasing, he felt that it was an offence to the dead horse to fix his attention on these repellent beasts.

At last he stopped before a white nag not very fat or sleek with a few grills on his legs and a certain air of fatigue, a beast of burden who had dejected, looked strong and willing.

But carefully, had he passed his hand over the animal's haunches when he found at his side the gipsy, obsequious, familiar, treating him as though he had known him all his life.

"That animal is a treasure, it is easy to see that you know good horses when you see them. And cheap. I don't think we'll quarrel over the price. . . . Monote! Walk him out so this gentleman can see that a graceful swing he has!"

And the Monote referred to a little gipsy took the horse by the halter and led him off with him over the trifles he has on the legs. You saw what a graceful swing he has. And for drawing a wagon? Why an elephant wouldn't have the push to him that he has! You can see the signs of it there on his neck."

Batiste did not look dissatisfied with his examination, but he tried to look displeased and made grimaces and rasped his throat. His misfortune as a carter had given him knowledge of horses and he laughed inwardly at some of the curious ones who, influenced by the bad looks of the horse, were arguing with the gipsy, telling him that the horse was fit only to be sent to the boneyard. His sad and weary appearance was that of beasts of labour who obey as long as they can stand on their legs.

The moment of decision came. He would buy him. How much?

"Since it's for a friend," said the gipsy, touching his shoulder carelessly, "since it's for a nice fellow like you who will treat this jewel of a horse well, I'll let him go for forty dollars and the bargain's made."

Batiste received this broadside calmly, like a man well used to such discussions, and smiled slyly. The gipsy stretched out his arms with dramatic indignation, retreated a few steps, pulled at his fur cap, and made all kinds of extravagant and grotesque gestures to express his amazement.

"Mother of God! Twenty-five dollars! But did you look at the animal! Even if I had stolen him, I couldn't sell him at that price!" But Batiste, to all his extravagant talk, always made the same reply: "Twenty-five. Not a cent more." And the gipsy, after exhausting all his persuasions, which were by no means few, fell back on the supreme argument.

"Monote . . . walk the horse out . . . so the gentleman can get a good look at him."

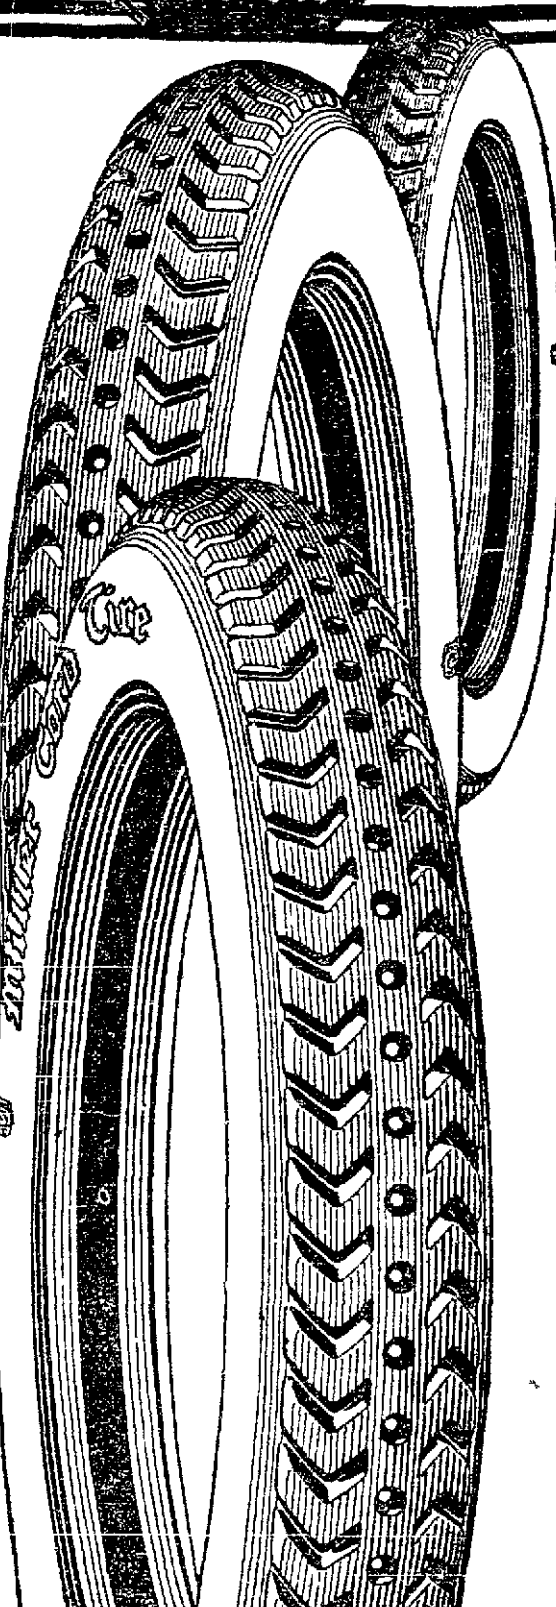

And away trotted Monote again, pulling the horse by the halter, more and more bored by all these promenades.

"What a gait, eh?" said the gipsy. "You'd think he was a prince. Isn't he worth twenty-five dollars to you?"

"Not a penny more," repeated the hard-headed Batiste.

ROGERS TO AVOID ERROR

In eyeglass making every part of the work must be carefully and scientifically executed.

The examination must be accurate—the measurements for the frame or mounting exact.

Your lenses must be perfectly ground to formula, cut, drilled and mounted to specifications, and last but not least the glasses must be carefully adjusted to your nose and face.

A little slip in any part of this process and the glasses will not be satisfactory.

That is why we combine the services of specialist, mechanic and optician in one organization all covered by one reasonable charge.

Our records show that more than 90 per cent of our patrons return whenever they require glasses.

Quality Gifts

Quality prompts the thoughtful to seek their jeweler for gifts to commemorate life's important events.

Little Helen's advent into the world is celebrated with gifts of silver and gifts of gold. Her graduation, which is second only to the eventful day, is remembered by fond parents with a handsome watch or stunning piece of jewelry, while the Lochinvar of her dreams seals their betrothal with a "gem of the first water."

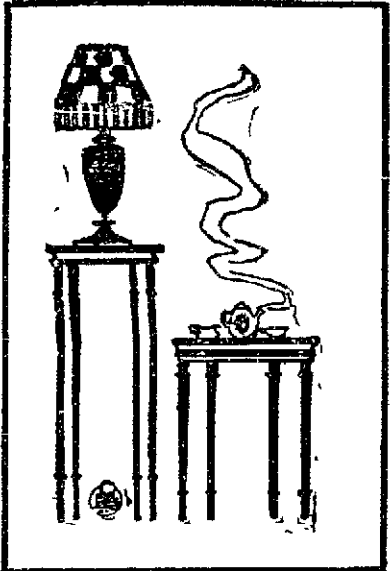

And on that day, the eventful day, the gifts important are those that go to make up her silver service—quality gifts.

NO COCKTAILS ON SANDS FOR SOCIETY, DRY DECREE

NEW YORK. — "Cocktails-on-the-sand" parties will not be in fashion at Narragansett Pier, Newport, and other fashionable watering places along the Connecticut, Rhode Island and Long Island shores this summer—at least not if James Shevlin, Prohibition Commissioner of the New York department, and his flock of keen-eyed agents can help it. The commissioner rules that carrying alcoholic stimulants from a clubhouse to the bathing beach—by thermos bottle, or on the hip, or otherwise—is in violation of the "dry" amendment, and decrees that it is not to be done in our best circles.

IF IT'S A NEW HIT THE BRUNSWICK HAS IT ON RECORD.

DORT

Quality Goes Clear Through

It seems to be common knowledge now, almost everywhere, that the Dort does give unusually long and faithful performance at a very low cost.

We, ourselves, have emphasized these Dort qualities to you time and again.

But we know that our repeated statements have played but a small part in building up this impression concerning the excellence and economy of Dort service.

Rather, it has come directly and in overwhelming measure from owners finding out these things themselves.

So that you will note even among people who do not now own a Dort but hope to, a high regard for the car that is based upon surprisingly accurate knowledge of its capacity for continued service at low cost.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produced kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat irritates the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

NEW YORK — Prices were higher at the opening of the stock market Saturday. U. S. Steel opened at 105 3/4, up 1/4. U. S. Rubber 112 1/2, up 1/2. Lackawanna 36 1/2, up 3/4. Crucible 25 1/2, up 1/2. U. S. Stores 81, up 3/4. Chandler 153, up 1 1/4. Utah 79 3/4, up 1/4. Reading 86 3/4, unchanged. Mexican Petroleum 202 1/2, up 1/4. General Motors 210, up 1/4. Southern Pacific 101 1/2, up 1/2. Studebaker 109, up 1 1/4. Marine preferred 96 3/4, up 1/4. and Stutz 35, up 1/2.

Steel common made a new high for the week at 106 around 11 o'clock. Chandler rose to 150, a new record. United States Realty made a new high on the move close to 58.

The market had a fair reaction during the last half hour, with steel common off 1 3/8 from the high and Republic more than 2. The decline was largely the result of profit-taking. General Motors sold down to 50, a decline of 11 points from previous close and Chandler reacted to 157.

Some profit-taking came into the industrial list and declines in Baldwin and other active stocks amounted to about two points during early trading. When selling was absorbed stocks quickly jumped back to opening levels.

(By Swift & Co.)
Receipts of eggs in the large consuming centers are only enough to take care of the heavy demand for Easter. As quality is now at its best, surplus over consumptive demand for the next few months will go to storage.

Deliveries of poultry by the farmers continue light, due to increasing egg production. For this reason, frozen poultry is meeting with a good demand.

Reports that large quantities of Danish butter are being shipped to this country have a depressing effect on the market. Added to this fact that home production is increasing. All signs at present point to lower butter prices.

When You Start Out on Something Important
ALL the pleasure will be gone if you are worrying as to whether or not you will get there.
We can save you from one brand of worry—batteries—uncertainty; and that means a lot.
No matter what make of battery you carry, get the habit of dropping in here for a few minutes every now and then and let us look it over. Some consumption may be imperfect. The battery may be undercharged. We can tell in a minute. There will be no charge for inspection or for adding distilled water. We recharge and repair all makes of batteries. We have the correct size of battery for every make and model of car. If you need a new battery you should have a Prest-O-Lite. The

is not merely a good battery, or a better battery—it is the best.

SATURDAY DULL IN GRAIN TRADING

Cash Corn Slightly Higher With Fair Demand

CHICAGO—A dull day on the Chicago board of trade left grain futures slightly lower at the close Saturday. Without any particular occurrence to hang their deals upon the traders were disposed to let matters drift. Under $1.56 there was fair support for corn. Local traders bought or sold largely to follow sporadic deals by outsiders. Cash corn was slightly higher with a fair demand. Provisions eased off toward the close, with corn and with the live stock markets.

March corn opened late at 1.61 1/4, up 3/4, and closed after losing the same fraction. May corn up 1-8, on opening at 1.56 1/2, subsequently dropped 5-8. July corn was unchanged at the opening, 1.50 1/4, but lost 5-8 before the close. September corn opened at 1.47 1/2, up 5-8 and dropped one cent thereafter.

May oats was 1-8 up on opening at 86 1/2, but lost 1-8 later. July oats opened 1-4 up at 95 1/4 and lost 1-8 before the close.

N. Y. SUN REVIEW

NEW YORK—The Evening Sun financial review Saturday said:
The gloom which got under way in the final hour of Friday's session was resumed Saturday morning. Initial quotations were anywhere from a fraction to more than a point higher. Trading was in large volume for a Saturday and fluctuations were unusually wide.
The whole industrial list wavered back and forth with considerable rapidity, stocks at times displaying marked strength and then again receding very easily.
United States Steel held between 105 and 106 while other steel and equipment shares reflected gains of one to two points. Among the specialties, Chandler Motors was a feature, rising more than 7 points to 159. United States Realty was pushed up to a new high above 57. The oils under the leadership of Pan-American and Sinclair were active and higher, the latter being unusually active. Other prominent spots were International Nickel, Industrial Alcohol, Mexican Petroleum, Republic, Studebaker and Stutz, which went to a new high. Coppers improved fractionally.

MARSHALL FIELD
Marshall Field and Company in their weekly review of the dry goods trade, say:
Current wholesale distribution of dry goods has been considerably ahead of the corresponding week a year ago.
Orders from salesmen on the road are also larger.
The number of customers in the house was about the same as during the same period a year ago.
Collections continue very satisfactory.

Short Shavings

"Do you act toward your wife as you did before you married her?"

"Exactly. I remember just how I used to act when I first fell in love with her. I used to lean over the once in front of her house and gaze at her shadow on the curtain, afraid to go in. And I act just the same way now when I get home late."

"Sit down, Mr. Stylo," said the eminent publisher to the tattered genius, who had just entered his elaborate sanctum. "I have read your manuscript, and I think I shall publish it."

"Ah!" cried the starving genius. "Do you really mean that?"

"Yes. It seems to me a good book, and I think it will fill a long-felt want."

"I'm glad to hear you say that. And, by the way, could you advance me two dollars on account of my royalties?"

"Oh, I think so—I think so. But why do you want two dollars?"

"I want to begin filling that long felt want you spoke of."

It was a dark night at Camp Grant. Footsteps of a horse were heard approaching.

"Halt! Who's there?" barked the rookie.

"Regimental commander!"

"Dismount, colonel, and advance to be recognized."

The colonel dismounted and came over to the rookie, who presented arms with a snap.

"Proceed, colonel," he said.

As he laboriously got back on his horse the colonel asked: "By the way, who posted you there?"

"Oh, nobody," replied the scout. "I'm just practicing."

The railings of a big transport on its way to France were lined with very new soldiers when a massive mob hurried by, bent upon some urgent duty.

"Gangway! Gangway!" he shouted as he passed along the deck.

"Gee, that guy'll catch hell when they find him," murmured one of the recruits.

"They been hollerin' for him all month!"

"Hollerin' for who?"

"Why that guy Gangway!"
